Copy of a Letter from Captain Farquhar, late Commander of His Majesty's Bomb the Acheron, to William Marsden, Esq; dated in Malaga Prison, the 12th of February 1805.

SIR,

YOU will be pleased to lay before my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty the enclosed Copy of an Account transmitted to Lord Nelson, of the Capture and Destruction of His Majesty's Sloop Arrow, Captain Vincent, and Acheron Bomb, under my Command, acquainting their Lordships that, from the uncertain State I am in with respect to the Safety of Captain Vincent, or to what Port he may have been carried, I have thought it my Duty not to let an Opportunity slip of giving his Lordship the earliest Information, as well as the Commanding Officer at Gibraltar, that immediate Assistance and Protection might be afforded to the Convoy.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ART. FARQUHAR.

Proceedings of His Majesty's Bomb Vessel

My Lord, Acheron, Sunday Feb. 3, 1805.

AT Daylight Two strange Sail were seen from the Malt-Head, bearing about E. S. E. of us; at Eight A. M. they had considerably neared us; we were at this Time in the Rear of the Convoy. About half-past Ten, the Arrow asked, per Telegraph, my Opinion of Ships to the Eastward; I immediately wore Ship and stood towards them; observed the headmost Ship to shorten Sail, by hauling down the Studding Sails; made Signal 642 to the Arrow, then hoisted the private Signal, and continued upon a Wind standing to them; at Quarter past Eleven made the Signal for their being suspicious (they not having answered the private Signal). I was now so near as to be able to observe they were Frigates, and at half past Eleven to discover that they had their spare Anchors in their Main Chains, which immediately led me to suppose that they were French. At Fifty Minutes past Eleven wore Ship, and made all Sail towards the Arrow, who had by this Time quitted her Tow, and made Signal for Convoy to continue the same Course, although Ships of War acted otherwise. At half-past Twelve P. M. (Monday per Log) hoisted our Colours and fired a Gun, which they paid no Attention to. Signals 360 and 322 were then made to the Arrow, who immediately made Signal to the Convoy for an Enemy, and to make all possible Sail to the appointed Rendezvous, which was repeated. The Frigates had by this Time made all possible Sail in Chase of us, but the Wind being light and variable from the Eastward we rather gained upon them. At half past Four P. M., having joined the Arrow, I went on board; Captain Vincent appeared satisfied they were Enemy's Ships; they were now about Five Miles from us; it was resolved to make Sail, and keep in the Rear of the Convoy, for their Protection. It was calm until Eleven P. M., when a Breeze sprung up from the W. S. W., wore Ship, and stood towards the Arrow. At Twelve she hailed, and desired we would keep in her Wake in close Order. At Two A. M. saw Two Sail upon the Lee Bow; called the Hands to Quarters. At half past came up with them, and discovered they were Two of the Convoy. At a Quarter past Four A. M. saw Two other Ships standing to us on the opposite Tack. At Forty-five Minutes past Four the Arrow hailed the headmost Ship, then passing under her Lee; being in close Order she soon came abreast of the Acheron. I saw she was a large Frigate prepared to engage. I hailed her, asking what Ship is that? she answered, What Ship are you? and immediately gave us her Broadside of Round and Grape, which did us very considerable Damage in Rigging and Sails, besides carrying away the Slings of the Main Yard, and Main top-gallant Yard in the Slings, but did not kill or wound any one; we returned her Fire, then hove about and gave her the Guns from the other Side, and kept up the Fire while our Shot would reach her. The Arrow bore up and raked her. At or about half-past Five the second Frigate passed the Arrow (then laying to upon the Starboard Tack) without firing; a little afterwards she appeared as if intending to wear, and having her Stern towards the Acheron, we gave her Two Rounds from the Larboard Guns. She then hauled her Wind and stood towards the other

Frigate. The People were now employed in splicing the Rigging and getting another Topgallant Yard and Sail ready to send aloft. At Day-light observed the Enemy had French Colours flying, and one of the Frigates bearing a Commodore's Pendant. They then wore and stood to us; answered our Signal and repeated the Annull to one of the Ships of the Convoy; bore up to close the Arrow; at Seven she hailed us, and desired we would keep in her Wake, in close Order; made sail in the Starboard Tack, closing with the Enemy; at Twenty-five Minutes past Seven the headmost Frigate being abreast of the Arrow, and within Half Musket-shot, fired her Broadside at her, which was immediately returned; at Thirty Minutes past Seven she was abreast of us, and gave us a Broadside; we then commenced Action with her, which we continued until the Second Frigate, which was the Commodore's, came up to and fired into us (having engaged the Arrow in passing); we now turned our Fire upon this Ship until we came close up with the Arrow, who had put her Helm a-weather and was now raking her; we hauled our Wind to clear the Arrow, who appeared to be wearing; I hailed, and asked if he meant to again come to the Wind on the Starboard Tack, but could not understand what he said: as soon as clear of the Arrow, we again directed our Fire against the Commodore's Ship, which we continued until Eight, when, with the greatest Grief, I saw the Arrow obliged to strike, being no longer able to contend with the great Superiority of Force opposed to her. She had, I conceive, received much Damage in the Act of wearing; the Wind being light she lay a considerable Time with her Head to the Enemy. The Achéron being now very much disabled in Masts, Sails, and Rigging, and Part of her Sternpost carried away, I considered farther Resistance on my Part could answer no good, and, unwilling to sacrifice the Lives of Men who had given me the highest Proof of their Courage, I determined to make what Sail I could, with little Hopes of saving the Ship, but with a View of prolonging the Time of my being captured, to give the Convoy the better Chance of escaping.

The Superiority in sailing of the Enemy's Ship rendered the Chase but short; at Three Quarters past Eight having in Chase received one Broadside and Part of another, and the Enemy now very near us, with the greatest Mortification and Sorrow I was obliged to surrender to the French Frigate L'Hortense, of Forty-four Guns, commanded by Monsieur De la Marre La Mellerie, who, finding her much disabled, as soon as the Officers and Ship's Company were removed, set her on Fire.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," it is (amongst other Things) enacted as follows: "That it shall be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees of any of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize enumerated or described in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the Port of London, to lodge and secure the same, under the Joint Locks of the Crown and the Merchant, in any Warehouse or Warehouses, situated at the Isle of Dogs, and belonging to the West India Dock Company, without Payment at the Time of the first Entry of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize of the Duties of Customs or Excise due on the Importation thereof, subject nevertheless to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions directed by this Act: Provided always, that no such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be so lodged or secured, unless and until such Warehouses and other Works belonging, or to belong thereto, shall be so far completed, that in the Judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every Respect, for the Reception of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and wherein the same may respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the Regulations and Directions of this Act, and the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, are hereby authorized and empowered, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to certify and make known his or their Approbation of such Warehouses, which Certificate shall be published Three Times at least, in the London Gazette, and in Two or more public Morning Newspapers then usually circulated in London."

And whereas by a Certificate under the Hands of Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, bearing Date the 16th Day of March 1804, the said Lords Commissioners did, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, certify and make known, that the following Warehouses belonging to the West India Dock Company, were so far completed, that in their Judgment the same were fit and proper in every Respect for the Reception of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize as are enumerated and described in the said Table annexed to the said Act of Parliament, marked (A), and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the Regulations and Directions of the said Act, viz. All those Thirteen Stacks of Warehouses adjoining each other, and situate on the North Side of the large Dock, belonging to the West India Dock Company, at the Idle of Dogs, forming the complete Range of Warehouses on the North Side of the said Dock, from the West End to the East End thereof; and the said Lords Commissioners did thereby declare their Approbation of the said several Warehouses accordingly.

And whereas by the Ninth Section of the said Act, it is further provided and enacted as follows: "That if the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the Provisions of this Act shall be extended to any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize not enumerated or described in either of the Tables to this Act annexed, and shall cause a List of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the Provisions, Regulations, and Restrictions of this Act shall extend, and be construed to extend to such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, in every Respect in as full and ample a Manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said Tables respectively, at the Time of passing this Act."

We the undersigned Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to, and in Execution of the Powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us to be expedient, that the Provisions of the said Act should be extended to Wines imported in Ships arriving from the West Indies (excepted in Table (B) annexed to the said Act); and that all Wines imported in Ships arriving from the West Indies, whether the same shall have been shipped on board such Vessels in the West Indies, or elsewhere, may respectively be safely and securely deposited in all or any of the Thirteen Stacks of Warehouses hereinbefore described, and remain therein, under the Regulations and Directions of the said Act. And we do further declare, that from and after the Publication of this our Certificate, in the London Gazette, conformable to the Directions of the said Act, all and every the Provisions, Regulations, and Restrictions of the said Act, shall extend, and be construed to extend to all such Wines imported in Ships arriving from the West Indies in every Respect in as full and ample a Manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in Table (A) annexed to the said Act at the Time of the passing the same Act.

Given under our Hands, this Twenty sixth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and five.

XII. And it is hereby further ordered, That all Ships and Vessels liable to Quarantine as aforesaid, and being furnished with clean Bills of Health as well as the Crews and Passengers on board the same, shall perform a Quarantine of Fifteen Days, in the Manner heretofore practised; which Quarantine shall commence from the Time when such Part of the Cargo, if any, as is enumerated in Two Classes hereinafter stated, shall have been delivered into the Floating Lazaret in Standgate Creek, or into the Lazaret to be erected at Chetney Hill, in case the Ship or Vessel shall perform Quarantine in Standgate Creek, or into Lighters or other proper Vessels appointed for the Purpose, in case the Ship or Vessel shall perform Quarantine at any of the Places hereinbefore appointed for the Performance thereof by Ships bound to any of the Out-Ports or Islands aforesaid: But in Cases where no Part of the Cargo shall consist of such Goods as are last described, then such Quarantine of Fifteen Days shall commence on the Day on which the Master or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived with such Ship or Vessel at the Station so appointed as aforesaid.

them out to be forwarded; and no Person except the said Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, or one of the Guardians on board the Ship or Vessel, shall be permitted to deliver such Letters from such fumigating Box; and the said Persons so hereby authorized to deliver the same, shall take Care, where several Letters or Papers are enclosed together, to slit open the Covers in Manner practised in the Lazarets of the Mediterranean.

And all Letters to such Persons so under Quarantine, shall be delivered to the Superintendent or his Assistant, and shall be distributed by him, or according to his Directions; and no Communication or Conference shall be had by Persons not under Quarantine with Persons so under Quarantine, except by Permission, or in the Presence of the Superintendent or his Assistant, and under such Regulations and Restrictions as shall be directed by the said Superintendent; nor, in Cases where such Persons shall perform Quarantine on board any Ship or Vessel, unless from the Boat of the Superintendent or his Assistant, one of whom shall always, and in all Cases, be present during such Communication and Conference; and such Communication and Conference shall be had at the Distance observed by the Superintendent or his Assistant in their usual Communication with Ships and Persons under Quarantine.

XVII. And it is hereby further ordered, That a Night Watch shall be regularly kept, and a sufficient Number of Guard Boats and Officers shall be appointed, for the Purpose of preventing all clandestine Communication between Persons in the Lazaret and those in the Hospital or Pest-House at Chetney-Hill, or other Place that may be there provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, or between Persons in the Floating Lazaret, either at Standgate Creek or elsewhere, and Persons in any Hospital-Ship, or any Place that may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease as aforesaid; or between Persons in such Floating Lazaret, Hospital-Ship, or Place so provided as aforesaid, and those in Ships and Vessels under Quarantine; or between Persons in Ships and Vessels under Quarantine, and those in any other Ship, Vessel, or Boat, or on Shore; and such Guard Boats shall row Guard all Night; and Centinels, with loaded Muskets, and small Pieces of Ordnance, loaded with Grape or Cannister-Shot, shall be constantly stationed on the most commanding Parts of the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or of the Floating Lazaret at Standgate Creek, or elsewhere; and no Houses or other Buildings shall be erected at or near the Beach near Chetney-Hill; other than those belonging to the said Lazaret; and that all Boats belonging to any Floating Lazaret, when not on necessary Duty, shall be always either on board the same, or fastened thereto by Chains, with strong Padlocks, the Keys of which shall be lodged in the Custody of a Person to be appointed for that Purpose by the Superintendent; and all the Boats belonging to Ships or Vessels under Quarantine, either at Standgate Creek or at the Out Ports, shall be taken from them, and no Use made of such Boats, except for the Purpose of carrying Goods to the Lazaret, or upon Occasions of Necessity, such Necessity to be determined by the Superintendent of Quarantine; and such Boats shall not be delivered up to the Commanders or Masters of such Ships or Vessels until the Expiration of the Quarantine to be respectively performed by them.

XVIII. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, or some proper Person appointed by the Superintendent, shall, as often as required, afford Assistance, and provide Necessaries for the Persons in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or in any Floating Lazaret or Hospital-Ship, and also for those on board the Ships and Vessels under Quarantine, taking Care to allow of no improper Communication with the Persons employed for that Purpose; which Persons shall always place their Boats to Windward, and shall deliver, by Means of Buckets, the Articles supplied by them.

XIX. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Quarantine Guardians, who shall be placed on board Ships and Vessels not furnished with clean Bills of Health, shall be instructed to take especial Care that nothing whatever be delivered from on board such Ships or Vessels when under Quarantine, without an Order, in Writing, from the Superintendent or his Assistant; every such Order to be entered in a Book by one of the said Guardians, and the Original to be delivered back to the Superintendent or his Assistant; and nothing, however little susceptible it may be thought to be of Infection, shall be conveyed from one Ship or Vessel under Quarantine to another, nor any personal Interchange be permitted from any such Ship or Vessel to another; and one of the Quarantine Guardians, when thereto required by the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, shall accompany the Lighters and Boats which shall be employed in passing to or from the Ship or Vessel on board of which such Guardians are placed, during the Passage of such Lighters and Boats to and from such Ship or Vessel, in order to prevent any Communication in the Transit of the Cargo from the Ship to any Floating Lazaret, or to the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, and shall take Care, after every Removal of Goods, that no Remnants of Cotton, or of any other Article enumerated in either of the said Two Classes herein-after stated, remain in the Lighters or the Boats, but shall, before leaving off Work, collect and deliver such Remnants into the Lazaret with the last Package, which they shall then carry from the said Ship or Vessel.

XX. And it is hereby further ordered, That the said Guardians shall take Care that after the Discharge of the Cargoes into the Lazaret, the Holds and between Decks of the Ships shall be completely swept, and the Sweepings burnt.

XXI. And it is hereby further ordered, That the said Guardians shall diligently search the Lockers, Chests, and other Repositories of the Officers, Passengers, and Crews, and every Part of the Ships and Vessels, so that no Article so enumerated in either of the said two Classes, nor any Matter or Thing considered as susceptible of Infection, remain undelivered to the Lazaret, unless what shall be declared by the said Superintendent or Medical Attendant to be requisite for daily Use, and shall see that all the said Chests, Lockers, and other Repositories, and all the Clothes and Bedding in the Ship or Vessel be daily opened and aired in such Manner as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine, and shall also make the like diligent Search in Ships and Vessels laden with other Goods not enumerated in either of the said Classes, so as to be able the better to ascertain that nothing enumerated or considered as susceptible, has been left on board.

XXII. And it is hereby further ordered, That one of the said Guardians shall make a daily Report to the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, and to the Medical Attendant, of the State of Health of every Person on board, and whether the Regulations of Quarantine have been properly complied with; and in case any Impediment shall occur in the Execution of the Duties required of the said Guardians, they shall give Notice immediately to the Commander, Master, or other Person, having Charge of the Ship or Vessel in the first Instance, and if thereupon such Impediment be not instantly removed, they shall then give Notice thereof to the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, who shall take Care to use effectual Means for the Removal of the same.

XXIII. And it is hereby further ordered, That if any Person on board shall fall sick, and any Medical Person shall be on board the Ship or Vessel, such Medical Person shall confer with the Medical Attendant alongside the Ship or Vessel, the Medical Attendant keeping to Windward, at a Distance of not less than Ten Feet; and in case there shall be no Medical Person on board, and it shall be necessary for the Medical Attendant to inspect the Sick, the Visit shall be made at the Ship's Boat by the Medical Attendant in his own Boat, keeping to Windward, at the like Distance of not less than Ten Feet; and if any Patient, after being examined in the Manner before-mentioned, shall be found to require such Medical or Chirurgical Aid as cannot properly be administered, except in the Pest House, or Hospital Ship, he shall be removed either to such Pest House or Hospital Ship, as the Case may require.

XXIV. And it is hereby further ordered, That Patients under Circumstances which shall induce Suspicion, that they may be infected with any pestilential Disorder, whether such Persons shall be in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or in a Floating Lazaret, or in any of the Ships or Vessels performing Quarantine, shall be sent to the Pest House, or other Place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, or to the Hospital Ship, according to the Discretion of the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant, and when it shall be proved that the Disease is not the Plague, nor infectious, the Patient shall be removed to a more commodious Apartment in the Lazaret, there to complete the Remainder of his Quarantine.

XXV. And it is hereby further ordered, That in case any pestilential Disorder shall actually discover itself on board any Ship or Vessel, or among any of the Persons under Quarantine, whether in any Ship or Vessel performing Quarantine, or in the Lazaret at Chetney Hill, or in a Floating Lazaret, the Person or Persons affected with such Disorder, shall be removed with all possible Care and Dispatch under the special Direction of the Superintendent of Quarantine and Medical Attendant to the Pest House, or other Place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, and a Proper Attendant shall be assigned to such Patient or Patients by the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Assisant, and such Patient or Patients shall be visited at a due Distance by the said Medical Attendant, and in case near Approach shall be required, some Person shall be specially appointed by the Medical Attendant for that Purpose.

XXVI. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Passengers and Crew of any Ship or Vessel under Quarantine may have the Assistance of any Medical Persons they may desire from the Shore, subject to the official Visits of the Medical Attendant, and to such Regulations and Restrictions as the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of such Medical Attendant, shall judge necessary; but all such Medical Persons, as well as all others, if they communicate by Contact with the Sick, shall perform the same Quarantine as the sick Persons themselves.

XXVII. And it is hereby further ordered, That after the Quarantine Guardians shall have been placed on board any Ship or Vessel, the Pilot may quit such Ship or Vessel, and be removed to an Apartment in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or in the Hospital Ship, provided he comes from a Ship or Vessel having no suspicious Sickness on board; but if otherwise, such Pilot shall be sent to the Pest House, or other place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, at the Discretion of the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant, and such Pilot shall in both Cases continue under Quarantine until the Probationary Airing of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, as hereinafter directed, shall be finished; and at the Expiration of such Probationary Airing, such Pilot, if he continue free from Infection, shall be fumigated and discharged from Quarantine: Provided always, that during the Performance of such Quarantine, either on board the Hospital Ship, or at the Pest House, or other Place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, such Pilot shall not have Communication with any other Person, except under similar Restrictions to those herein directed with regard to other Persons under Quarantine.

XXVIII. And it is hereby further ordered, That until the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill shall be erected, such of the Passengers and Crew of any Ship or Vessel arriving as above mentioned, not furnished with clean Bills of Health, as may be desirous of performing Quarantine in a separate Vessel, to be hired at their own Expence, shall, in case the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant, shall see no Objection thereto, be permitted to quit the Ship or Vessel in which they shall have arrived before the Hatches are opened, and to go on board any other Ship or Vessel to perform Quarantine. (in which other Ship or Vessel a Quarantine Guardian shall be placed at the Expence of the Person or Persons so performing Quarantine,) and such Persons shall there perform a Quarantine of Thirty Days, and such of the Passengers and Crew as shall remain on board the Ship in which they shall have arrived, shall continue under Quarantine until the Ship shall be discharged therefrom.

XXIX. Provided always, that in case any Pestilential Accident shall occur among the Ship's Crew or Passengers during the Probationary Airing of the Goods, at whatever Stage of the Quarantine such Accident may happen, the Quarantine of all the Officers, Passengers, and Crew, and of the Pilot, (if there shall be a Pilot at that Time liable to Quarantine in respect of his having been on board such Ship or Vessel,) as well as of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, shall recommence; and the Sick Persons shall be sent to the Hospital Ship, or to the Pest House, or other Place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease; the external Guard shall be immediately doubled, and Notice of such Accident shall be given with all possible Dispatch to the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council, that they may give such Orders thereupon as may appear to them to be necessary.

XXX. And it is hereby further ordered, That all Persons who shall have to perform Quarantine in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill shall perform such Quarantine for the same Time, and under the same Regulations as those who are permitted to perform Quarantine in separate Vessels as hereinbefore directed.

And it is hereby further ordered, That the Baggage, Wearing Apparel, Books, and every other Article belonging to any Person on board any Ship or Vessel arriving as above mentioned, and not furnished with a clean Bill of Health, for which they shall have no immediate Occasion, shall be sent to the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or to a Floating Lazaret, for the Purpose of being aired in like Manner as other Goods of the same Description; and before any of the Passengers or Crew shall be discharged from Quarantine, they, their Clothes, and other Effects, which have remained with them, shall be fumigated.

XXXII. And it is hereby further ordered, That immediately after the Pilot, and such of the Passengers and Crew of the Ships and Vessels so arriving without clean Bills of Health as may be permitted or directed to perform Quarantine in any of the Modes hereinbefore mentioned, shall have quitted the Ship or Vessel in which they shall have arrived, the Hatches of such Ship or Vessel shall be opened, and the Probationary Airing of the Cargo shall commence, which Probationary Airing shall be in the following Manner, viz.

Such a Number of Bales of the enumerated Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes of the First Class, hereinafter stated, as can be ranged upon Deck, shall be taken from the Hold, and, the Seams at one or both Ends being ripped open, the Contents shall be handled as much as possible by the Sailors, in the Presence of one of the Guardians, and under this Process of handling and turning such Bales shall remain exposed to the Air for Six Days, and on the subsequent Day shall be put into a Condition to be, and shall accordingly be delivered to the Lighter appointed to transport them to the Floating Lazaret, or to the Lazaret at Chetney Hill: and as soon as the Deck is cleared of the first Parcel of Goods, a second Parcel shall be hoisted up and treated in like Manner for the Space of Three Days, and on the subsequent Day shall in like Manner be put into such Condition, and shall be so delivered as aforesaid; after which a third Parcel shall be hoisted up and treated in the same Manner also for the Space of three Days, and on the subsequent Day shall in like Manner be put into such Condition, and shall be so delivered; but in case of any suspicious Circumstances arising, the Probationary Airings shall be ex-

XLIX. And it is hereby further ordered, That this Order, and the Regulations herein contained, shall take Effect and be in Force from the Tenth Day of May next ensuing the Date hereof, until which Time the Orders and Regulations now subsisting touching Quarantine shall continue in force; but which subsisting Orders and Regulations, and the Authority of the same, shall, from and after the said Tenth Day of May, wholly cease and determine. SIR,

THE accompanying Recital of the Destruction of a French Felucca Privateer, by His Majesty's Sloop Peterell, I send for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

And I am, &c.

J. T. DUCKWORTH.

His Majesty's Ship Peterell, off Cape Antonio,

SIR, 24th January 1805.

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that on the Twenty-third Instant, in passing Cape Cerientes, we discovered a French Felucca in Sand Bay, who weighed immediately on seeing us; on finding we were coming up with her, they ran her on Shore, upon which I anchored the Ship, and sent the Boats to burn her, which I had the Satisfaction of seeing completely effected before we got under weigh. She mounted one Four Pounder, a Swivel, and had a Number of small Arms, and Twenty-seven Men, who made their escape on Shore, except one Man. She had lately captured an American Brig, that was carried into the Havannah, and sold.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Sir Samuel Hood, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to William Marsden, Esq; dated in Carlisle Bay, Barbadoes, February 16, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to transmit to you the Copy of a Letter from Captain Bettsworth, Commander of His Majesty's Sloop Curieux, detailing an Account of the Capture of the Madame Ernouf Privateer, after a very sharp Action, in which the Captain of the Privateer displayed an extraordinary Degree of Obstinacy, and by it lost the Lives of many Men. The Coolness and Bravery of Captain Bettsworth, his Officers and Men, early manifested its Superiority. Indeed I want Words to express the Gallantry and Spirit of this Officer, who so lately received Three Wounds in capturing the Sloop he now commands; has again a severe Wound by a Musket Ball in the Head; and, I trust, will merit the Notice of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, as an emulative and promising Officer, that has gained every Step by his Zeal and Courage.

I am, &c. SAM. HOOD.

SIR, Curieux, at Sea, February 8, 1805.

I HAVE to inform you, that this Morning, at Break of Day, Barbadoes bearing West about Twenty Leagues, I perceived a large Brig on our Lee Bow, who immediately bore up and made all Sail away, and after a Chace of Twelve Hours, during which Time she tried every Point of Sailing to escape us; we arrived within point-blank Shot of her, when she took in her Studding Sails, and brought to on the Starboard Tack, hoisted French Colours, and commenced a very brisk and heavy Fire of great Guns and small Arms; on our arriving within Pistol Shot, and ranging upon her Weather Quarter, we discharged our Guns, and the Action continued with great Obstinacy on both Sides for about Forty Minutes, when the Enemy getting on our Weather Quarter, I conceived, from their having in great Measure left their Guns, and giving Three Cheers, that they intended to board us; she was then steering for our Leeward Quarter, when we put our Helm to Starboard, and caught his Jib-Boom between our after Fore shroud and Fore-mast. In this Situation she remained until her Decks were completely cleared, when, at the Moment we were going to take Possession, the Vessels parted, and her Foretop-mast went overboard; she continued a short Time firing Musketry, and then hauled down her Colours, and proved to be La Dame Ernouf, of Sixteen long French Sixes, and One hundred and twenty Men, out Twenty Days from Guadaloupe, and had taken One Merchant Ship (since retaken by His Majesty's Sloop Nimrod); sails very fast, coppered, and remarkably well found; but although she carries the same Number of Guns, and of the same Calibre as the Curieux, she is not near so large.

I can attribute her fighting so long and obstinately to nothing but the Captain being part Owner, her having run, since the Commencement of the War, with so much Success, and her being so well manned.

His Majesty's Brig had five Killed, and three Wounded, besides myself; of the former, I have to regret the Loss of a valuable Officer, Mr. Madocks, the Purser, who (on account of Mr. Bofs, First Lieutenant, having been left behind, on Leave, from the Hurry of our sailing) volunteered his Services, and was killed gallantly fighting at the Head of the small Arm Men. I cannot help stating as a Tribute to the Memory of so worth a young Man, that to the Service, he is the Loss of a very good Officer, and to every Body that knew him, a valuable Friend and Companion.

Lieutenant Bofs having been left behind, deprived me of the Services of an able and gallant Officer, but Lieutenant Donaldson so well supplied his Place, not only by Exertion at the Guns, but putting the Orders that were given in Execution, although the only Officer I had on board, but Mr. Caddy Master's Mate, and Mr. Templeton Boatswain, that I did not, by their great Assistance, feel the Want of an Individual.

The Enemy had Thirty Killed, and Forty-one Wounded; and in Justice to his Gallantry, I must say, he never struck whilst there was a Man on his Decks.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

G. E. B. BETTESWORTH.

Commodore Sir Samuel Hood, K. B.

SIR, Sloop King's Fish. Dec. 29, 1804.

A CHANCE of Six Hours S. I should be doing great Injustice to His Majesty's Schooner Grenada, were I not to give her the Credit, on chasing the Enemy to my View, and when her Commander saw that I had every Chance of Success, he judiciously chaced, and recaptured the Sloop Hero. I am, &c.

XVII. And it is hereby further ordered, That a Night Watch shall be regularly kept, and a sufficient Number of Guard Boats and Officers shall be appointed, for the Purpose of preventing all clandestine Communication between Persons in the Lazaret and those in the Hospital or Pest-House at Chetney-Hill, or other Place that may be there provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, or between Persons in the Floating Lazaret, either at Standgate Creek or elsewhere, and Persons in any Hospital-Ship, or any Place that

XVIII. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, or some proper Person appointed by the Superintendent, shall, as often as required, afford Assistance, and provide Necessaries for the Persons in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or in any Floating Lazaret or Hospital-Ship, and also for those on board the Ships and Vessels under Quarantine, taking Care to allow of no improper Communication with the Persons employed for that Purpose; which Persons shall always place their Boats to Windward, and shall deliver, by Means of Buckets, the Articles supplied by them.

XIX. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Quarantine Guardians, who shall be placed on board Ships and Vessels not furnished with clean Bills of Health, shall be instructed to take especial Care that nothing whatever be delivered from on board such Ships or Vessels when under Quarantine, without an Order, in Writing, from the Superintendent or his Assistant; every such Order to be entered in a Book by one of the said Guardians, and the Original to be delivered back to the Superintendent or his Assistant; and nothing, however little susceptible it may be thought to be of Infection, shall be conveyed from one Ship or Vessel under Quarantine to another, nor any personal Intercourse be permitted from any such Ship or Vessel to another; and one of the Quarantine Guardians, when thereto required by the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, shall accompany the Lighters and Boats which shall be employed in passing to or from the Ship or Vessel on board of which such Guardians are placed, during the Passage of such Lighters and Boats to and from such Ship or Vessel, in order to prevent any Communication in the Transit of the Cargo from the Ship to any Floating Lazaret, or to the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, and shall take Care, after every Removal of Goods, that no Remnants of Cotton, or of any other Article enumerated in either of the said Two Classes herein-after stated, remain in the Lighters or the Boats, but shall, before leaving off Work, collect and deliver such Remnants into the Lazaret with the last Package, which they shall then carry from the said Ship or Vessel.

XX. And it is hereby further ordered, That the said Guardians shall take Care that after the Discharge of the Cargoes into the Lazaret, the Holds and between Decks of the Ships shall be completely swept, and the Sweepings burnt.

XXI. And it is hereby further ordered, That the said Guardians shall diligently search the Lockers, Chests, and other Repositories of the Officers, Passengers, and Crews, and every Part of the Ships and Vessels, so that no Article so enumerated in either of the said two Classes, nor any Matter or Thing considered as susceptible of Infection, remain undelivered to the Lazaret, unless what shall be declared by the said Superintendent or Medical Attendant to be requisite for daily Use, and shall see that all the said Chests, Lockers, and other Repositories, and all the Clothes and Bedding in the Ship or Vessel be daily opened and aired in such Manner as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine, and shall also make the like diligent Search in Ships and Vessels laden with other Goods not enumerated in either of the said Classes, so as to be able the better to ascertain that nothing enumerated or considered as susceptible, has been left on board.

XXII. And it is hereby further ordered, That one of the said Guardians shall make a daily Report to the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, and to the Medical Attendant, of the State of Health of every Person on board, and whether the Regulations of Quarantine have been properly complied with; and in case any Impediment shall occur in the Execution of the Duties required of the said Guardians, they shall give Notice immediately to the Commander, Master, or other Person, having Charge of the Ship or Vessel in the first Instance, and if thereupon such Impediment be not instantly removed, they shall then give Notice thereof to the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, who shall take Care to use effectual Means for the Removal of the same.

XXIII. And it is hereby further ordered, That if any Person on board shall fall sick, and any Medical Person shall be on board the Ship or Vessel, such Medical Person shall confer with the Medical Attendant alongside the Ship or Vessel, the Medical Attendant keeping to Windward, at a Distance of not less than Ten Feet; and in case there shall be no Medical Person on board, and it shall be necessary for the Medical Attendant to inspect the Sick, the Visit shall be made at the Ship's Boat by the Medical Attendant in his own Boat, keeping to Windward, at the like Distance of not less than Ten Feet; and if any Patient, after being examined in the Manner before-mentioned, shall be found to require such Medical or Chirurgical Aid as cannot properly be administered, except in the Pest House, or Hospital Ship, he shall be removed either to such Pest House or Hospital Ship, as the Case may require.

XXIV. And it is hereby further ordered, That

Patients under Circumstances which shall induce Suspicion, that they may be infected with any pestilential Disorder, whether such Persons shall be in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or in a Floating Lazaret, or in any of the Ships or Vessels performing Quarantine, shall be sent to the Pest-House, or other Place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, or to the Hospital Ship, according to the Discretion of the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant, and when it shall be proved that the Disease is not the Plague, nor infectious, the Patient shall be removed to a more commodious Apartment in the Lazaret, there to complete the Remainder of his Quarantine.

XXV. And it is hereby further ordered, That in case any pestilential Disorder shall actually discover itself on board any Ship or Vessel, or among any of the Persons under Quarantine, whether in any Ship or Vessel performing Quarantine, or in the Lazaret at Chetney Hill, or in a Floating Lazaret, the Person or Persons affected with such Disorder, shall be removed with all possible Care and Dispatch under the special Direction of the Superintendent of Quarantine and Medical Attendant to the Pest House, or other Place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, and a Proper Attendant shall be assigned to such Patient or Patients by the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Assistant, and such Patient or Patients shall be visited at a due Distance by the said Medical Attendant, and in case near Approach shall be required, some Person shall be specially appointed by the Medical Attendant for that Purpose.

XXVI. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Passengers and Crew of any Ship or Vessel under Quarantine may have the Assistance of any Medical Persons they may desire from the Shore, subject to the official Visits of the Medical Attendant, and to such Regulations and Restrictions as the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of such Medical Attendant, shall judge necessary; but all such Medical Persons, as well as all others, if they communicate by Contact with the Sick, shall perform the same Quarantine as the sick Persons themselves.

XXVII. And it is hereby further ordered, That after the Quarantine Guardians shall have been placed on board any Ship or Vessel, the Pilot may quit such Ship or Vessel, and be removed to an Apartment in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or in the Hospital Ship, provided he comes from a Ship or Vessel having no suspicious Sickness on board; but if otherwise, such Pilot shall be sent to the Pest House, or other place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, at the Discretion of the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant, and such Pilot shall in both Cases continue under Quarantine until the Probationary Airing of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, as hereinafter directed, shall be finished; and at the Expiration of such Probationary Airing, such Pilot, if he continue free from Infection, shall be fumigated and discharged from Quarantine: Provided always, that during the Performance of such Quarantine, either on board the Hospital Ship, or at the Pest House, or other Place which may be provided for the Recep-

XXIX. Provided always, that in case any Pestilential Accident shall occur among the Ship's Crew or Passengers during the Probationary Airing of the Goods, at whatever Stage of the Quarantine such Accident may happen, the Quarantine of all the Officers, Passengers, and Crew, and of the Pilot, (if there shall be a Pilot at that Time liable to Quarantine in respect of his having been on board such Ship or Vessel,) as well as of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, shall recommence; and the Sick Persons shall be sent to the Hospital Ship, or to the Pest House, or other Place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease; the external Guard shall be immediately doubled, and Notice of such Accident shall be given with all possible Dispatch to the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council, that they may give such Orders thereupon as may appear to them to be necessary.

XLIX. And it is hereby further ordered, That this Order, and the Regulations herein contained, shall take Effect and be in Force from the Tenth Day of May next ensuing the Date hereof, until which Time the Orders and Regulations now subsisting touching Quarantine shall continue in force; but which subsisting Orders and Regulations, and the Authority of the same, shall, from and after the said Tenth Day of May, wholly cease and determine. LORD CHANCELLOR. Wednesday the 27th of March, in the 45th Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third 1805, between Richard Poole and another, Plaintiffs, and John Wheeler, Defendant.

Forasmuch as this Court was this present Day informed by Mr. Leach, of Counsel for the Plaintiffs, that the Plaintiffs on the 7th of February 1804, filed their Bill of Revivor in this Court against the Defendant, as by the Six Clerks' Certificate appears, and took out Process of Subpoena, returnable on the 23d of January 1805, requiring the Defendant to appear to and answer the same, but the Defendant hath not so done; that it appears by the Affidavit of Jeremiah Duncan, that on strict Search and diligent Inquiry at the late usual Place of Residence of the Defendant John Wheeler, and elsewhere, he could not find the said Defendant John Wheeler to serve him with a Subpoena, issued out of and under the Seal of this Court, by which said Subpœna the said John Wheeler was commanded to appear in this Court the 23d Day of January 1805, at the Suit of the Plaintiffs; that on the 22d Day of the same January the said Jeremiah Duneau enquired at the late Dwelling-House of the said John Wheeler, at Hill-Top, in the County of Stafford, where the said John Wheeler was to be found, and he was informed by a Woman, who he believed was the Servant-Maid of the Person then residing at the said Dwelling-House, that the said John Wheeler had left his said Dwelling-House upwards of a Year, and was gone to America, which Information the said Jeremiah Duneau believed to be true, the said Jeremiah Duneau having heard from many other Persons, that the said John Wheeler had long since absconded, and was gone to reside in America; and the said Jeremiah Duneau believed that the said John Wheeler was gone beyond the Seas, in order to avoid being served with the said Subpœna and other Writs; and the said Certificate and Affidavit being read, it is thereupon ordered, that the Defendant John Wheeler do appear to the Plaintiffs' Bill on or before the 1st Day of next Easter Term.

XII. And it is hereby further ordered, That all Ships and Vessels liable to Quarantine as aforesaid, and being furnished with clean Bills of Health as well as the Crews and Passengers on board the same, shall perform a Quarantine of Fifteen Days, in the Manner heretofore practised; which Quarantine shall commence from the Time when such Part of the Cargo, if any, as is enumerated in Two Classes hereinafter stated, shall have been delivered into the Floating Lazaret in Standgate Creek, or into the Lazaret to be erected at Chetney Hill, in case the Ship or Vessel shall perform Quarantine in Standgate Creek, or into Lighters or other proper Vessels appointed for the Purpose, in case the Ship or Vessel shall perform Quarantine at any of the Places hereinbefore appointed for the Performance thereof by Ships bound to any of the Out-Ports or Islands aforesaid: But in Cases where no Part of the Cargo shall consist of such Goods as are last described, then such Quarantine of Fifteen Days shall commence on the Day on which the Master or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived with such Ship or Vessel at the Station so appointed as aforesaid.

Person having Charge of every such Ship or Vessel so arriving without a clean Bill of Health, shall have undergone the Examination hereinbefore directed, and shall have arrived with his Ship or Vessel at the Station so appointed as aforesaid, Two Quarantine Guardians shall be placed on board such Ship or Vessel by the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant.

XVI. And it is hereby further ordered, That all Persons on board any Ship or Vessel under Quarantine may be permitted to have Communication with others by Letters, under the following Regulations and Restrictions, viz.

In Cases where such Persons shall perform Quarantine in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, an Officer appointed by the Superintendent of Quarantine, shall daily go to a proper Place to be appointed by the said Superintendent of Quarantine for the Receipt of Letters from Persons under Quarantine; and in Cases where such Persons shall perform Quarantine in a Floating Lazaret or in a separate Vessel, an Office Boat not under Quarantine, with an Officer appointed by the Superintendent of Quarantine, shall, in like Manner daily, at a fixed Hour, go round the said Lazaret or Vessel to receive such Letters, the usual Precaution of dipping such Letters in Vinegar and putting them into the fumigating Box, being always first observed; and such Letters shall remain in the fumigating Box until such Time as the Superintendent shall give Directions for taking them out to be forwarded; and no Person except the said Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, or one of the Guardians on board the Ship or Vessel, shall be permitted to deliver such Letters from such fumigating Box; and the said Persons so hereby authorized to deliver the same, shall take Care, where several Letters or Papers are enclosed together, to slit open the Covers in Manner practised in the Lazarets of the Mediterranean.

And all Letters to such Persons so under Quarantine, shall be delivered to the Superintendent or his Assistant, and shall be distributed by him, or according to his Directions; and no Communication or Conference shall be had by Persons not under Quarantine with Persons so under Quarantine, except by Permission, or in the Presence of the Superintendent or his Assistant, and under such Regulations and Restrictions as shall be directed by the said Superintendent; nor, in Cases where such Persons shall perform Quarantine on board any Ship or Vessel, unless from the Boat of the Superintendent or his Assistant, one of whom shall always, and in all Cases, be present during such Communication and Conference; and such Communication and Conference shall be had at the Distance observed by the Superintendent or his Assistant in their usual Communication with Ships and Persons under Quarantine.

XVII. And it is hereby further ordered, That a Night Watch shall be regularly kept, and a sufficient Number of Guard Boats and Officers shall be appointed, for the Purpose of preventing all clandestine Communication between Persons in the Lazaret and those in the Hospital or Pest-House at Chetney-Hill, or other Place that may be there provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, or between Persons in the Floating Lazaret, either at Standgate Creek or elsewhere, and Persons in any Hospital-Ship, or any Place that may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease as aforesaid; or between Persons in such Floating Lazaret, Hospital-Ship, or Place so provided as aforesaid, and those in Ships and Vessels under Quarantine; or between Persons in Ships and Vessels under Quarantine, and those in any other Ship, Vessel, or Boat, or on Shore; and such Guard Boats shall row Guard all Night; and Centinels, with loaded Muskets, and small Pieces of Ordnance, loaded with Grape or Canister-Shot, shall be constantly stationed on the most commanding Parts of the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or of the Floating Lazaret at Standgate Creek, or elsewhere; and no Houses or other Buildings shall be erected at or near the Beach near Chetney-Hill, other than those belonging to the said Lazaret; and that all Boats belonging to any Floating Lazaret, when not on necessary Duty, shall be always either on board the same, or fastened thereto by Chains, with strong Padlocks, the Keys of which shall be lodged in the Custody of a Person to be appointed for that Purpose by the Superintendent; and all the Boats belonging to Ships or Vessels under Quarantine, either at Standgate Creek or at the Out Ports, shall be taken from them, and no Use made of such Boats, except for the Purpose of carrying Goods to the Lazaret, or upon Occasions of Necessity, such Necessity to be determined by the Superintendent of Quarantine; and such Boats shall not be delivered up to the Commanders or Masters of such Ships or Vessels until the Expiration of the Quarantine to be respectively performed by them.

XVIII. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, or some proper Person appointed by the Superintendent, shall, as often as required, afford Assistance, and provide Necessaries for the Persons in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or in any Floating Lazaret or Hospital-Ship, and also for those on board the Ships and Vessels under Quarantine, taking Care to allow of no improper Communication with the Persons employed for that Purpose; which Persons shall always place their Boats to Windward, and shall deliver, by Means of Buckets, the Articles supplied by them.

XIX. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Quarantine Guardians, who shall be placed on board Ships and Vessels not furnished with clean Bills of Health, shall be instructed to take especial Care that nothing whatever be delivered from on board such Ships or Vessels when under Quarantine, without an Order, in Writing, from the Superintendent or his Assistant; every such Order to be entered in a Book by one of the said Guardians, and the Original to be delivered back to the Superintendent or his Assistant; and nothing, however little susceptible it may be thought to be of Infection, shall be conveyed from one Ship or Vessel under Quarantine to another, nor any personal Interchange be permitted from any such Ship or Vessel to another; and one of the Quarantine Guardians, when thereto required by the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, shall accompany the Lighters and Boats which shall be employed in passing to or from the Ship or Vessel on board of which such Guardians are placed, during the Passage of such Lighters and Boats to and from such Ship or Vessel, in order to prevent any Communication in the Transit of the Cargo from the Ship to any Floating Lazaret, or to the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, and shall take Care, after every Removal of Goods, that no Remnants of Cotton, or of any other Article enumerated in either of the said Two Classes herein-after stated, remain in the Lighters or the Boats, but shall, before leaving off Work, collect and deliver such Remnants into the Lazaret with the last Package, which they shall then carry from the said Ship or Vessel.

XX. And it is hereby further ordered, That the said Guardians shall take Care that after the Discharge of the Cargoes into the Lazaret, the Holds and between Decks of the Ships shall be completely swept, and the Sweepings burnt.

XXI. And it is hereby further ordered, That the said Guardians shall diligently search the Lockers, Chests, and other Repositories of the Officers, Passengers, and Crews, and every Part of the Ships and Vessels, so that no Article so enumerated in either of the said two Classes, nor any Matter or Thing considered as susceptible of Infection, remain undelivered to the Lazaret, unless what shall be declared by the said Superintendent or Medical Attendant to be requisite for daily Use, and shall see that all the said Chests, Lockers, and other Repositories and all the Clothes and Bedding in the Ship or Vessel be daily opened and aired in such Manner as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine, and shall also make the like diligent Search in Ships and Vessels laden with other Goods not enumerated in either of the said Classes, so as to be able the better to ascertain that nothing enumerated or considered as susceptible, has been left on board.

XXII. And it is hereby further ordered, That one of the said Guardians shall make a daily Report to the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, and to the Medical Attendant, of the State of Health of every Person on board, and whether the Regulations of Quarantine have been properly complied with; and in case any Impediment shall occur in the Execution of the Duties required of the said Guardians, they shall give Notice immediately to the Commander, Master, or other Person, having Charge of the Ship or Vessel in the first Instance, and if thereupon such Impediment be not instantly removed, they shall then give Notice thereof to the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, who shall take Care to use effectual Means for the Removal of the same.

XXIII. And it is hereby further ordered, That if any Person on board shall fall sick, and any Medical Person shall be on board the Ship or Vessel, such Medical Person shall confer with the Medical Attendant alongside the Ship or Vessel, the Medical Attendant keeping to Windward, at a Distance of not less than Ten Feet; and in case there shall be no Medical Person on board, and it shall be necessary for the Medical Attendant to inspect the Sick, the Visit shall be made at the Ship's Boat by the Medical Attendant in his own Boat, keeping to Windward, at the like Distance of not less than Ten Feet; and if any Patient, after being examined in the Manner before-mentioned, shall be found to require such Medical or Chirurgical Aid as cannot properly be administered, except in the Pest House, or Hospital Ship, he shall be removed either to such Pest House or Hospital Ship, as the Case may require.

XXIV. And it is hereby further ordered, That

Patients under Circumstances which shall induce Suspicion, that they may be infected with any pestilential Disorder, whether such Persons shall be in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or in a Floating Lazaret, or in any of the Ships or Vessels performing Quarantine, shall be sent to the Pest-House, or other Place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, or to the Hospital Ship, according to the Discretion of the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant, and when it shall be proved that the Disease is not the Plague, nor infectious, the Patient shall be removed to a more commodious Apartment in the Lazaret, there to complete the Remainder of his Quarantine.

XXV. And it is hereby further ordered, That in case any pestilential Disorder shall actually discover itself on board any Ship or Vessel, or among any of the Persons under Quarantine, whether in any Ship or Vessel performing Quarantine, or in the Lazaret at Chetney Hill, or in a Floating Lazaret, the Person or Persons affected with such Disorder, shall be removed with all possible Care and Dispatch under the special Direction of the Superintendent of Quarantine and Medical Attendant to the Pest House, or other Place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, and a Proper Attendant shall be assigned to such Patient or Patients by the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Assistant, and such Patient or Patients shall be visited at a due Distance by the said Medical Attendant, and in case near Approach shall be required, some Person shall be specially appointed by the Medical Attendant for that Purpose.

XXVI. And it is hereby further ordered, That the Passengers and Crew of any Ship or Vessel under Quarantine may have the Assistance of any Medical Persons they may desire from the Shore, subject to the official Visits of the Medical Attendant, and to such Regulations and Restrictions as the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of such Medical Attendant, shall judge necessary; but all such Medical Persons, as well as all others, if they communicate by Contact with the Sick, shall perform the same Quarantine as the sick Persons themselves.

XXVII. And it is hereby further ordered, That after the Quarantine Guardians shall have been placed on board any Ship or Vessel, the Pilot may quit such Ship or Vessel, and be removed to an Apartment in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill, or in the Hospital Ship, provided he comes from a Ship or Vessel having no suspicious Sickness on board; but if otherwise, such Pilot shall be sent to the Pest House, or other place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, at the Discretion of the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant, and such Pilot shall in both Cases continue under Quarantine until the Probationary Airing of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, as hereinafter directed, shall be finished; and at the Expiration of such Probationary Airing, such Pilot, if he continue free from Infection, shall be fumigated and discharged from Quarantine: Provided always, that during the Performance of such Quarantine, either on board the Hospital Ship, or at the Pest House, or other Place which may be provided for the Reception tion of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease, such Pilot shall not have Communication with any other Person, except under similar Restrictions to those herein directed with regard to other Persons under Quarantine.

XXVIII. And it is hereby further ordered, That until the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill shall be erected, such of the Passengers and Crew of any Ship or Vessel arriving as above mentioned, not furnished with clean Bills of Health, as may be desirous of performing Quarantine in a separate Vessel, to be hired at their own Expence, shall, in case the Superintendent of Quarantine, with the Advice of the Medical Attendant, shall see no Objection thereto, be permitted to quit the Ship or Vessel in which they shall have arrived before the Hatches are opened, and to go on board any other Ship or Vessel to perform Quarantine. (in which other Ship or Vessel a Quarantine Guardian shall be placed at the Expence of the Person or Persons so performing Quarantine,) and such Persons shall there perform a Quarantine of Thirty Days, and such of the Passengers and Crew as shall remain on board the Ship in which they shall have arrived, shall continue under Quarantine until the Ship shall be discharged therefrom.

XXIX. Provided always, that in case any Pessilential Accident shall occur among the Ship's Crew or Passengers during the Probationary Airing of the Goods, at whatever Stage of the Quarantine such Accident may happen, the Quarantine of all the Officers, Passengers, and Crew, and of the Pilot, (if there shall be a Pilot at that Time liable to Quarantine in respect of his having been on board such Ship or Vessel,) as well as of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, shall recommence; and the Sick Persons shall be sent to the Hospital Ship, or to the Pest House, or other Place which may be provided for the Reception of Persons afflicted with any infectious Disease; the external Guard shall be immediately doubled, and Notice of such Accident shall be given with all possible Dispatch to the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council, that they may give such Orders thereupon as may appear to them to be necessary.

XXX. And it is hereby further ordered, That all Persons who shall have to perform Quarantine in the Lazaret at Chetney-Hill shall perform such Quarantine for the same Time, and under the same Regulations as those who are permitted to perform Quarantine in separate Vessels as hereinbefore directed.

And it is hereby further ordered, That the Baggage, Wearing Apparel, Books, and every other Article belonging to any Person on board any Ship or Vessel arriving as above mentioned, and not furnished with a clean Bill of Health, for which they shall have no immediate Occasion, shall be sent to the Lazaret at Chetney Hill, or to a Floating Lazaret, for the Purpose of being aired in like Manner as other Goods of the same Description; and before any of the Passengers or Crew shall be discharged from Quarantine, they, their Clothes, and other Effects, which have remained with them, shall be fumigated.

XXXII. And it is hereby further ordered, That immediately after the Pilot, and such of the Passengers and Crew of the Ships and Vessels so arriving without clean Bills of Health as may be permitted or directed to perform Quarantine in any of the Modes

XLIX. And it is hereby further ordered, That this Order, and the Regulations herein contained, shall take Effect and be in Force from the Tenth Day of May next ensuing the Date hereof, until which Time the Orders and Regulations now subsisting touching Quarantine shall continue in force; but which subsisting Orders and Regulations, and the Authority of the same, shall, from and after the said Tenth Day of May, wholly cease and determine. Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Gardner, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Hibernia, off Ushant, April 10, 1805.

S I R,

I HEREWITH transmit to you, for their Lordships' Information, Copy of a Letter, dated the 25th Ultimo, from Captain Prowse, of the Sirius, (addressed to the Honorable Admiral Cornwallis.)

which I received this Morning, inclosing a Letter of the same Date, which he had received from Lieutenant James Rose, of the Growler Gun-Brig, (Copy of which is also enclosed,) giving an Account of his having captured Two of the Enemy's Gun-Brigs, between the Bec du Raz and the Penmarks. I have the Honor to be, &c.

GARDNER.

His Majesty's Ship Sirius, off the Penmarks, March 25, 1805.

SIR,

ENCLOSED is a Letter from Lieutenant Rose, commanding His Majesty's Gun-Brig Growler, of his having captured Two French Gun-Boats, of the Third Class, close in with the Penmarks; One, No. 443, being so bad a Vessel, I did not think her Trull-worthy to cross the Channel, and ordered the long Brass Nine-Pounder, Two small Carronades, &c. to be taken out, and to destroy her.

I am, &c.

W. FROWSE.

Honorable William Cornwallis.

His Majesty's Gun-Brig Growler, off the Penmarks, March 25, 1805.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to inform you, that this Morning, between Eleven and Twelve, as I was standing in Shore, between the Passage du Raz and the Penmarks, I observed Fifteen Sail of the Enemy's Gun-Boats standing in Shore; I made Sail in Chase of the Headmost, but not finding it practicable to cut her off, I bore up and made Sail for the Leewardmost, and succeeded in capturing Two of them; they proved to be No. 443, with Fifteen Men, and No. 450, with Twelve Men on board; the remaining Thirteen having anchored under the Penmarks preventing me from capturing any more.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JAMES ROSE.

William Frowse, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Sirius.

Admiralty-Office, April 16, 1805.

SIR,

ENCLOSED herewith you will receive the Copy of a Letter from Captain Carteret, of the Scorpion, informing me of his having, in Company with the Providence Armed Ship, captured the Schooner L'Honneur, Captain Antoine Doudet.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

T. M. RUSSELL.

His Majesty's Sloop Scorpion, Tarmouth Roads, April 13, 1805.

SIR,

BY Captain Rye's Letter, of His Majesty's Hired Armed Brig the Providence, their Lordships are already apprised, I believe, of the Capture of a Dutch Schooner, under National Colours, on the 11th Instant, off Schelling; she had quitted Delfzyel on the preceding Day; was chased on the ensuing Morning for a considerable Time by the Providence, as well as by His Majesty's Armed Sloop the Thomas, and was finally taken Possession of by this Sloop.

The Vessel proved to be the Honneur, of Twelve Guns, having One Thousand Stand of Arms on board, a complete Set of Cloathing for that Number of Men, and a considerable Quantity of Warlike Stores; she has besides Two Field-Pieces, Twelve-Pounders, and Two Mortars, besides Tents, &c. for Troops: Jean Saint Faust, so noted for his successful Depredations on the British Commerce in these Seas, is a Passenger on board of her.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Copy of another Letter from Rear-Admiral Russell to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Monmouth, Tarmouth Roads, the 14th Instant.

SIR,

I ENCLOSE a Letter from Captain Burlton, of the Adamant, transmitting one from Captain Bayley, of the Inflexible, respecting the Capture of L'Alert French Privateer, on the 12th Instant, and the Recapture of the Brig Mary of Lynn. The latter arrived here this Morning.

I am, &c.

T. M. RUSSELL.

SIR,

Adamant, at Sea, April 13, 1805.

IN consequence of Information I received of an Enemy's Lugger Privateer being to the S. W. of the Inflexible and Adamant, I directed a Course to be steered in hopes of meeting with her, and have the Honor to inform you we succeeded in capturing the said Lugger, named L'Alert, (as you will perceive by Captain Bayley's Letter,) we also recaptured the Brig Mary of Lynn, and it is probable we may be able to stop the Schooner.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

GEORGE BURLTON.

Rear-Admiral Russell, &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship Inflexible, at Sea, April 12, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Pleasure to inform you, that the Boats of His Majesty's Ship I command this Day captured, after a Chase of between Three and Four Hours, L'Alert French Lugger Privateer, of Four small Carriage Guns, and small Arms, Egide Colbert, Commander, having Thirty-two Men, Ten of whom he had put on board an English Schooner and Brig, named in the Margin*, captured close off the Spurn on the 8th Instant.

The Capture of this Vessel is very fortunate, as she sails remarkably well, and has done much Damage to our Trade.

I am, &c.

T. BAYLEY.

George Burlton, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Adamant.

N. B. I have the Pleasure to inform you, that we this Morning recaptured the Brig named in the Margin.

Brig Mary of Lynn.

Whitchall, April 15, 1805.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was this Day received, by an Overland Conveyance, at the East India House, from the Governor and Council at Bombay:

To the Secret Committee of the Honorable Court of Directors for the Affairs of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, London.

HONORABLE SIRs,

i. IN Addition to the Information communicated in our last Overland Dispatch, on the Subject of the Events of the War with Jeswunt Row Holkar, we take this Occasion to report, that we have since been advised of an Attack made by a Division of Holkar's Infantry and Artillery on the City of Delhi, on the 8th Ult. Lieutenant-Colonel Burn, the Officer in Command of the British Troops at that Station, reporting that, during the Whole of that Day, the Enemy continued a very heavy Cannonade; and that on the 9th they advanced and erected a Four Gun Battery, very near to the South East Bastion of the City Wall, where their Shot had great Effect. To check their Progress in that Quarter a Sortie was determined on: The Party employed consisting of about Three Hundred and Fifty Men, under the Command of Lieutenant Rose, of which Number Fifty, with a Six-Pounder, composed the Reserve, under Lieutenant Dickson. The Whole are stated to have been speedily and well conducted to the Enemy's Battery, and to have soon got Possession of their Guns, and spiked them; the Party then returning under a heavy Discharge of Shot and Grape. Lieutenant Rose, who led the Detachment, and the Whole of the Officers, are reported to have executed that Duty to the entire Satisfaction of Lieutenant-Colonel Burn, who also mentions in favourable Terms Captain Carnagie and Lieutenant Woodville, of Captain Harriott's Battalion, and Lieutenants Evans, Heathcote, and Lockett, of the 2d Battalion 14th Regiment, besides some others, whose Names he adverts to as having been reported to the Commander in Chief in a former Dispatch, which has not reached us.

2. On the 14th the Enemy attempted an Assault on the Town of Delhi, but were repulsed with considerable Loss. The Details of the Assault had not been received up to the Date of our latest Advices from Calcutta, but in a Dispatch from the Commander in Chief to His Excellency the Governor General, he thus adverts to the Spirit and Gallantry of the Troops at Delhi: "The meritorious Conduct of our Troops, on both of the above-mentioned Occasions, reflects on their Courage and Perseverance the highest Credit. My Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Auchterlony, the acting Resident, speaks in the highest Terms of the Conduct of the Troops under his Orders. I beg to assure your Excellency that the Arrangements made by that Officer merit my warmest Praise and Approbation; on which I shall have the Honor more fully to report hereafter."

3. Official Advices had been received at Fort William, in a Letter from the Commander in Chief, dated Serie, the 16th of October, stating that the Troops of Jeswunt Row Holkar had made a precipitate Retreat on the Morning of the 15th, from their Position near the Town of Delhi.

4. Since taking Possession of Chandore, Dhoorp, and Galva the Force employed in the Deccan, under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Wallace, has been advancing towards the River Taptie. According to the latest Accounts from that Officer, a Party of the Peshwa's Troops detached from Galva had obtained Possession of the Town of Nunderbar, and of the greater Part of that District, without meeting with any Opposition. As soon as the Peshwa's Officers should be in Possession of the Tract west of his Position on the River Panja, and south of the Taptie, Lieutenant-Colonel Wallace intended to move to Borenair. Holkar's Retainers in Candeish appear now to be reduced to Two or Three inconsiderable Chiefs, with but few Followers.

We have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir Andrew Mitchell, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Halifax, to William Marsden, Esq; dated Bermuda, 24th of March 1805.

S I R,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Three Letters relative to the Capture of His Majesty's Ship Cleopatra, on the 17th of February last, by the French Frigate La Ville de Milan, after a very severe Action.

Their Lordships will with Pleasure observe how fortunate the Leander has been in falling in with both Ships, taking La Ville de Milan, and retaking the Cleopatra.

No Language of mine can do sufficient Justice to the Perseverance in the Chace, and gallant Conduct of Sir Robert Lawrie, Bart. his Officers, and young Ship's Company, in the Action with the Enemy, which will ever reflect the highest Honor on them, when their Lordships consider the Superiority of the Ships and Men.

I cannot omit, at the same Time, to give full Credit to the Zeal shewn by the Leander's Ship's Company, and with what Alacrity and anxious Wish (Captain Talbot reports to me) they shewed to engage both the Frigates, then in the Haze, and under French Colours, when the Leander bore up to place herself between them to bring them to Action:—from the high Opinion I have of the Officers, and the uniform good and steady Conduct and Discipline of the Men, I trust they would have given a good Account of them.

The Cleopatra sailed for Halifax the 18th Instant, under the Charge of Captain Sir Robert Lawrie, for the Purpose of being valued and refitted as soon as possible.

La Ville de Milan I shall take to Halifax with the Squadron. She is a very fine Frigate, of the largest Class, only One Year old the Day of the Action, and completely fit for His Majesty's Service in every Respect, except the Damage she received in her Masts, Yards, &c. in the Action, having also a great Quantity of spare Stores on board. I therefore trust their Lordships will give the necessary Orders for her being purchased into His Majesty's Service. I shall take upon me to direct Commissioner Inglefield to cause the proper Officers of His Majesty's Dock Yard to value her Hull, Stores, &c. agreeable to their Lordships' Instructions on that Head.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

A. MITCHELL.

His Majesty's Ship Leander, off St. David's Head, Bermuda, Wednesday 6th March

SIR, 1805, at Ten A. M.

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that I proceeded to Sea, and cruized in His Majesty's Ship under my Command, according to your Orders, dated the 13th of last Month.

On Saturday the 23d February, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, a Sail was seen from the Mast-Head, bearing South of us; the Weather at this Time was hazy, with Squalls of Wind and Rain from the Northward. All sail was immediately made in chase, the Weather becoming still more hazy, in a few Moments we lost Sight of the Chace; at half-past Two o'Clock it cleared away a little to the Southward, and we again got Sight of her. I found we had considerably neared the Chace, and that it was a large Ship under Jury Masts, standing to the South-East. At Three o'Clock we saw another Ship a short Distance from the Chace, steering the same Course, also under Jury Masts, in Appearance a much larger Vessel. As we closed them very fast, we soon clearly saw they were both Frigates; on their making us out to be a Man of War, they closed to support each other, fired a Gun to Leeward, and hoisted French Ensigns from their Main-Stays; at Four o'Clock we were within Gun Shot of them, they separated, the Frigate nearest to us put before the Wind, the other steered with it, on her Larboard Quarter. By half-past Four o'Clock we got within Musket Shot of the smallest Frigate, gave her one of the Main-Deck Guns; when, after a few Minutes Hesitation, she hauled down her Colours, and hove to.

On my hailing this Frigate, I am sorry to tell you, Sir, that I was informed by them, she was His Majesty's Ship Cleopatra, of Thirty two Guns, lately commanded by Sir Robert Lawrie, Bart. She was taken on Sunday the 17th of February, after having brought to and sustained a most severe and gallant Action for the Space of Three Hours and a Quarter, by a French Frigate nearly double her Force, in Size, Complement of Men, and Weight of Metal.

Observing that the Part of the Crew left on board her belonging to His Majesty's Ship Cleopatra, had come on Deck, and taken Possession of her on the Ship striking to us: I hailed, ordered them to make sail, and steer after His Majesty's Ship Leander. Again made sail in Chace, and in about an Hour's Time got alongside the French Frigate; she hauled down her Colours, and struck to us without a Gun being fired on either Side.

On hailing the French Frigate, you, Sir, may easily judge how happy I must have felt, on hearing I was answered by my Friend Sir Robert Lawrie, who told me he was well, and that the Ship was La Ville de Milan, Nineteen Days from the Island of Martinique, bound to France.

La Ville de Milan is a remarkably fine and handsome Frigate; about one Year old, One Thousand

Two Hundred Tons Burthen, mounting Fourteen long, Nine-Pounders on her Quarter-Deck, Six long Nine-Pounders on the Forecastle, Fifteen Ports of a Side on the Main-Deck; when she sailed from France, had Twenty-eight Eighteen-Pounders mounted on it—now Twenty-six; Two were landed from her at Martinique.

When the Action commenced between La Ville de Milan and His Majesty's Ship Cleopatra, she was commanded by Mons. Reynaud, Capitaine de Vaisseau, had on board Three Hundred and Sixty Men as her Complement, besides a Number of Officers and Soldiers of the French Army, going Passengers to Europe.

The Officers of La Ville de Milan agree in saying, that having Dispatches on board for France, with Orders not to speak any Thing during their Passage, every Thing was done in their Power to avoid being brought to Action by the Cleopatra.

Mons. Reynaud was killed by the last Shot fired from the Cleopatra; he was esteemed an experienced and active Officer, and had served in the late King of France's Service as an Auxiliary Officer. He sailed in La Ville de Milan from L'Orient, the 1st of last August, as Commodore of Six of their largest Frigates, with Troops embarked on board them, to be landed on the Island of Martinique; after having performed this Service, he was ordered, as the French Officers express it, to make a Sweep through the Islands.

Mons. Guillet, Capitaine de Fregate, and Second Captain of La Ville de Milan, commanded when she struck to us, and Mons. Carron, her Second Lieutenant, had the Command of the Cleopatra.

It is not possible for Officers to speak in stronger Terms than the French Officers do in Praise of Sir Robert Lawrie's Perseverance in so long a Chace, except it is in the Praise they bestow on him, his Officers, Seamen, and Marines for their gallant Conduct during so long and severe an Action.

It is a very painful Part of my Duty to be obliged to inform you, Sir, that your eldest Son, who was doing Duty as an acting Lieutenant, is included among the Number badly wounded on board the Cleopatra: as soon as the Weather admitted of his being removed, I had him brought on board this Ship, and I have great Pleasure in telling you he is much recovered; and from the Experience, great Care and Attention of Mr. Clifford, Surgeon of the Leander, I have every Reason to believe that you will, in a short Space of Time, have the Satisfaction of finding him once more gallantly exerting himself for the Honor, and in the Defence of his King and Country. Sir Robert Lawrie speaks in the highest Terms of his Conduct, and, indeed, of that of all the Officers, Seamen and Marines of His Majesty's Ship Cleopatra.

Sir Robert has, at my Request, been so kind as to take Charge of the Cleopatra till she arrives in Port. I have given Mr. Nairne, First Lieutenant of His Majesty's Ship Leander, Charge of La Ville de Milan; the Length of Time he has had the Honor to serve under your Flag would make it superfluous in me to attempt to point out to you, Sir, his meritorious Services and Abilities as an Officer; the only Comment I can make on his Conduct on this Occasion, is, that nothing can exceed the Exertions he has made in putting La Ville de Milan in a sea worthy State.

The Alacrity of the Officers, Seamen, and Marines of His Majesty's Ship under my Command during the Chace, and their Steadiness on going down to attack the two Frigates, who had closed, in Appearance with a Determination to make a formidable Resistance, convinced me, Sir, that had they waited to make the Resistance they seemed disposed to do, the Leander would not have fulled her good Name.

I have the Honor to be, &c

JOHN TALBOT, Post Captain.

His Majesty's Ship Leander, Murray's
SIR, Anchorage, Bermuda, March 7, 1805.

I HAVE the Honor to send you inclosed a Letter I this Day received from Sir Robert Lawrie, Bart. From the Statement made therein, you will find, Sir, that the Credit of the British Flag has seldom been more honorably and gallantly supported than on the present Occasion; and the French Officers, whom I have Prisoners on board this Ship, cannot themselves avoid to acknowledge, that had not the Cleopatra unfortunately forged a-head of La Ville de Milan the latter Part of the Action, La Ville de Milan must have surrendered to the Cleopatra. I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) J. TALBOT.

His Majesty's Ship Cleopatra, at Sea,
February 25, 1805.

SIR, I HAVE to request that you will be pleased to acquaint the Commander in Chief, that on Saturday the 16th Instant, in Lat. 28 Deg. N., Long. 67 Deg. W., at Ten A. M., saw a Ship in the S. E. standing to the E. N. E., the Wind at N. W.; made Sail towards her; at Eleven perceived the Chace to be a large Frigate, with Fifteen Ports of a Side on the Main Deck; cleared Ship for Action, and hoisted American Colours to induce him to bring to for us; but, instead of which, he made more Sail; the Weather squally; made and shortened Sail occasionally; carried away several Studding Sail-Yards, and the Foretop-Mast Studding Sail Boom, shifted over the Starboard one, and set the reefed Lower Studding-Sail; a good deal of Swell; the Chace apparently steering so as to keep the Studding-Sails drawing full; and that at Daylight on the 17th, was about Four Miles a-head; fresh Breezes and Swell as before. At half-past Ten he took in his Studding Sails, and hauled more up; when we got within about Three Quarters of a Mile took in ours also. At half-past Eleven he hauled his Mainfall up, and kept more to the Wind; upon our steering so close with him upon his Quarter he again set it and Stayfairs, trying to gain the Wind of us (upon which Point of Sailing he had the Advantage); we made all Sail, the Chace having some Time before hoisted French Colours, and we ours.

On his seeming to draw a-head from us, at the Distance of about half Gun-shot, fired our Bow Chasers, which he returned occasionally from his Stern.

His Guns appearing so well directed, and of heavy Metal, and to prevent being raked by them,

I was obliged to steer so as to keep on his Quarter, though prolonging the Chace. Latitude, at Noon, 29 Deg. 24 Min. N., Long. 64 Deg. 20 Min. W. At half-past Two P. M. having got within about a Cable's Length from the Enemy, he luffed close to the Wind, and gave us Two Broadides, which, when at less than a half Cable's Distance, we returned, and a warm Action commenced, both Ships trimming Sails, steering sometimes close to the Wind, and at others about Three Points free, during which we had considerably the Advantage. About Five, having shot away his Main-topfail-Yard, we forged a head, although the Mizzen-topfail was squared, and both Jib, Stay, and Haulyards gone, finding neither Fore nor Main Clue-Garnets left to haul the Courses up, our Running Rigging cut to Pieces, so as to render it impossible to either shorten or back a Sail, and both Main and Spring Stays were shot away, the Mainmast only supported by the Storm Stayfail-Stay, I was induced to erofs his Bow, and, by hauling up, to have raked him, in Preference to exposing our Stern to the Fire of Twenty-five Pieces of Cannon from his Broadside; but in the Act of which an unfortunate Shot struck the Wheel, the broken Spokes were jammed against the Deck, so as to render it immoveable, as well as the Rudder, which, at the same Time, was choaked in the End by Splinters, Pistols, &c. placed near it. Our Opponent, availing himself of our ungovernable Situation, with the Wind upon his Quarter, gave us the Stern, running his Head and Bowsprit over our Quarter Deck, just abaft the Main Rigging, and, under the Cover of a very heavy Fire from Muskets and Mulketons, attempted to board us, but was drove back; we exchanged a few Musketry with them; but their great Advantage in Height and Superiority of Numbers, as well as by their Musketoons from their Tops, cleared our Decks, and in at our Ports. The only Two Guns we could bring to bear, being fired from within board, did them little Injury, the Shot passing through their Lower Deck. Most of our Sails laying a-shiver, or partly a-back, and bore down by so heavy a Ship, (having been intended for a Seventy-four,) going almost before the Wind, and much Sea running, appearing to cut us asunder at every fend, I saw no Prospects of saving this Ship, or the Lives of the numerous Wounded that then were below, on the Suggestion of the First Lieutenant we attempted to hoist the Fore-topmast Stayfail; and I directed the Spritsail Topfail to be set also; but, in the Execution of which Orders, every Man was knocked down by their Musketry and other small Shot as they made their Appearance. At a Quarter past Five they succeeded in boarding, and I was compelled to surrender to the French Frigate La Ville de Milan, of Forty-six Guns, French Eighteen-Pounders, on the Main-Deck, and Eights on the Quarter-Deck and Forecastle; Three Hundred and Fifty Men, besides several Officers and Passengers: commanded by Monsieur Reynaud, Capitaine de Vaisseaux, and Monsieur Gillet, Capitaine de Frigate; the former was killed, and the latter badly wounded in the Action, and immediately afterwards the Cleopatra became a perfect Wreck, not a Spar standing but the Mizzen-mast, the Bowsprit and other Masts gone by the board, and I fully expected she would have foundered before both Ships could get clear of each other.

I trust it will be found that every Exertion was made to bring a Ship of so superior Force into Action, and in maintaining of it. La Ville de Milan is nearly double our Size and Force, being a new Ship of about Twelve Hundred Tons Burthen, and having almost twice our Number of Men on board, as we only mustered at Quarters One Hundred and Ninety-nine, being Ten short of Complement, and that from the Strength of the Ship's Company in able Seamen, and there were several in the sick List.

From Lieutenant Balfour I received every Assistance, as from a good and zealous Officer, as also from Lieutenants Kinfman and Crooke, and Lieutenant Bowen of the Bermuda, who kept up a well-directed Fire from the main Deck, and Mr. Mitchell, Midshipman and Acting Lieutenant, from the Quarter-Deck, at which Lieutenant Appleton of the Marines assisted, having no Men to spare for Small Arms, but was wounded early.

The steady and cool Conduct of Mr. Bett (the Master) confirmed what I had always expected from him: to go further in particularizing Individuals would be too tedious; but I think it my Duty to mention Mr. McCarthy's (the Boatswain) Conduct, who is badly wounded, was highly spirited and active; and more Gallantry and Bravery could not have been displayed than by both Officers and Men of so young a Ship's Company, many being under Twenty Years of Age, and only Three Marines, who had joined that Corps more than Two Weeks before they were embarked.

I have no Hesitation in saying, that had not the above unlucky Accident occurred, she must have struck to us, as the next Morning her Foremast and Bowprit were the only Masts standing, much cut in the Hull, and I counted Eleven Shot in the Wreck of her Main-Mast; that our Twelve-Pounders could not do that Justice too from its Size, nor the Thickness of her Sides, that was so well intended.

I beg most earnestly to solicit Sir Andrew Mitchell's Patronage in Favor of Messrs. Howes and Ridgeway, (Master's-Mates,) as Two very meritorious and promising young Men, having considerably more than served their Time, and passed for Lieutenants; their Conduct on this Occasion, as well as for several Years before, with me, has been much to my Satisfaction, and in my humble Opinion, to entitle them to Promotion, as well as for Mr. Balfour the First Lieutenant; as you, Sir, must be the best Judge of the Situation we have reduced the French Ship to, so as to render her Chance of Escape from our numerous Cruizers almost an absolute Impossibility. I have the Honor to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Langford, Commander of His Majesty's Sloop Lark, to William Marsden, Esq; dated Port Praya, Island of St. Jago, February 8, 1805.

SIR,

HAVE the Honor to inform you, that in consequence of Information of a Spanish Merchant Schooner being at Anchor off the Bay of Senegal, I proceeded immediately in quest of her, and had the good Fortune to meet with her at that Anchorage. She proves the Spanish Schooner the Carmenera, pierced for Sixteen Guns, having only Two on board, laden with Wine, formerly in Possession of the French, employed as a Privateer by Victor Hughes at Cayenne, has done considerable Mischief to the British Trade on this Coast, was now intended to have been presented by the Governor of Senegal to Victor Hughes as a further Annoyance to our Trade on this Part of the Coast.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

retired to their Chairs in the Isle behind the Altar.

Deputy Black Rod and the Register, not having Sword had been placed: and Garter presenting the Surcoat, His MAJESTY was graciously pleased, with the Assistance of the Two Senior Knights, to the Chapter-House while the Procession to the Middle Isle, into the Choir, in the following Order:

First, the Poor Knights; who, coming into the Choir, made their Reverences, and placed themselves

The Officers of Arms, making their Reverences, stood next to the Poor Knights.

The Knights Companions, in the Order in which they had walked, made their Reverences, and retired under their Banners.

The Register, Deputy Garter, and Deputy Black
Rod, making their Reverences together, stood be-

The Prelate did the same.

The SOVEREIGN made One Reverence to the Altar, and, being in his Stall, repeated the same;
the Train Bearers standing upon the Steps leading up to the SOVEREIGN's Stall. The Sword of State, with the Lord Chamberlain, on the Steps before, or under, the SOVEREIGN's Stall.

Deputy Garter then going into the Middle of the Choir, and, making his double Reverence, waved his Sceptre towards His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, who thereupon, coming from under his Banner, made his Reverences, and ascended into his Stall; where, repeating his Reverences, he sat down.

All the other Knights continued standing under their Banners.

The Prelate was conducted to the Altar by the Serjeant of the Vestry; and Two Prebends by the Verge of St. George's Chapel.

Then Deputy Garter, with the usual Reverences took up the Banner of His Serene Highness the late Duke of Saxe Gotha; and holding it up, Norroy King of Arms and the Senior Herald joined, and, making their Reverences, repaired to Their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of York and Clarence, who thereupon joining, and making their Reverences together, received the Banner from Deputy Garter, and being preceded by the said Officers of Arms, advanced to the first Step of the Altar, where they repeated their Reverences, and, coming to the Rails, made One Reverence to the Altar; then, kneeling, they delivered the Banner to the Prelate, who, assisted by the Prebends, placed it at the South End of the Altar.

The Two Knights then returned, with like Reverences, and stood under their Banners.

The Sword was then delivered by Deputy Garter to Their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Kent and Cumberland, who, attended by the said Officers of Arms, offered the same with like Ceremonies.

The Helm and Crest were offered by their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Suffex and Cambridge with the same Ceremony.

The Achievements of the late Marquis of Stafford, of the late Duke of Beaufort, and of the late Duke of Roxburghe, were offered with the same Ceremonies by the Six Senior Knights, not of the Blood Royal, attended each Time by Two Heralds, in Rotation.

Deputy Garter then summoned the Knights to ascend into their Stalls.

All the Knights being in their Stalls, Deputy Garter summoned the Two Senior Knights under their Banners, in order to instal the Duke of Rutland; and they proceeded to the Chapter-House in the following Order:

Poor Knights—Officers of Arms—The Register, Deputy Garter, and Deputy Black Rod—The Two Knights.

And from the Chapter-House His Grace was conducted to the Choir in the following Order:

The Two Knights having between them the Duke of Rutland, in his Surcoat and Sword, carrying his Cap and Feather in his Hand.

All entering the Choir, with the usual Reverences, Deputy Garter placed the Cushion upon the Desk of the Lower Stall. The Two Knights, with the Duke, entered into the Lower Stall; where the Register administered the Oath, Deputy Black Rod holding the Gospels. Then the Two Knights conducted his Grace into the upper Stall; the Register and Deputy Garter entering into the Lower Stall; and Deputy Black Rod remaining in the Area.

Deputy Garter then presented the Mantle to the Knights, who invested his Grace therewith, the Register reading the Admonition: Next, Deputy Garter presented the Hood, and afterwards the great Collar and George, with which the Knights invested the Duke, whilst the Register read the Admonition.

Deputy Garter then presented the Statute Book, which the Knights delivered to his Grace; and then placing the Cap and Feather on his Head, they seated him in his Stall; and his Grace, rising up, made his Double Reverence: the Knights, after embracing and congratulating him, descended, and making their Reverences, went up into their Stalls, and the Officers to their Places.

Then Deputy Garter summoned the Two Knights next in Seniority, in order to instal the Proxy for the Earl of Hardwicke; who was thereupon conducted with the same Ceremony into the Stall under that appointed for his Principal, where the Register administered to him the Oath. He was then conducted into the Upper Stall; and the Mantle being presented by Deputy Garter, the Knights put the same over his left Arm, so that the Cross embroidered within the Garter, might be seen. They then seated the said Proxy in the Stall, with the Ceremony as before mentioned; and returned to their Stalls; the Proxy immediately rising made his Reverences, and remained standing during the Rest of the Ceremony with the Mantle on his Arm.

The Duke of Beaufort, the Marquis of Abercorn, the Earl of Pembroke, the Earl of Winchilsea, and the Earl of Chesterfield, were severally introduced, and installed in the same Manner as the Duke of Rutland.

Divine Service then began; and at the Words of the Offertory "Let your Light so shine," &c.—The Organ playing—The Officers of the Wardrobe spread a Carpet on the Steps of the Altar; and Deputy Black Rod, making his Obeisances, went up to the Rails of the Altar, on the North Side; where he received from the Yeoman of the Wardrobe, a rich Carpet and Cushion, which, with the Assistance of the Yeoman, he laid down for the SOVEREIGN to kneel upon.

In the mean Time, Deputy Garter summoned the Knights from their Stalls, and being all under their Banners,

The SOVEREIGN, making one Reverence to the Altar, descended from his Stall; and then making another Reverence in the Middle of the Choir, proceeded to the Offering in the following Order:

Deputy Garter. The Register.

The Lord Chamberlain. The Sword of State.

The SOVEREIGN,

His MAJESTY's Train borne as before.

As the Procession passed, the Duke of Devonshire, (being the Senior Knight not of the Blood Royal,) making his Reverence, placed himself a little behind His MAJESTY, on the Right Side. The SOVEREIGN, coming to the Rails of the Altar, made a Reverence; when Deputy Black Rod, on his Knee, delivered the Offering to the Knight, who delivered it to the SOVEREIGN; and His MAJESTY, taking off his Cap, and kneeling, put the Offering into the Bason: then rising, made his Reverence to the Altar; and, retiring, another in the Middle of the Choir (all the Attendants turning as His MAJESTY did, and making their Reverences at the same Time); and, being in his Stall, another. The Knight, who delivered the Offering, retired under his Banner, when the Procession came opposite to the same.

During the SOVEREIGN's Return, the Officers of the Wardrobe removed the Carpet and Cushion whereon His MAJESTY had kneeled; leaving the first Carpet and placing Two Cushions for the Knights; and Deputy Black Rod returned to his Place.

All the Knights standing under their Banners, Norroy King of Arms and the Senior Herald joined with usual Reverences, and went to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; who, in the Middle of the Choir, making his double Reverence, was conducted to the Altar; where, taking off his Cap, and, making another Reverence, he knelt, and offered Gold and Silver in the Bason; and, returning in the same Order, went into his Stall; where, making his Reverence, he sat down.

Then the next Knights in Seniority (those of the Blood Royal being attended by Norroy and the Senior Herald, and the other Knights by Two Heralds in Rotation,) offered in like Manner, and so on till all the Knights and the Proxy had offered; whereupon they ascended into their Stalls.

Divine Service proceeded: and, being ended, Deputy Garter summoned the Knights under their Banners, Juniors first; which done, the Poor Knights joined, made their Reverences, and went out of the Choir; then the Prebends; the Officers of Arms; the Knights; the Officers of the Order. The Lord Chamberlain, and the Sword of State, preceded the SOVEREIGN as before. The Procession moved to the great West Door of the Chapel, up the South Aisle, and, out at the South Door, to the Upper Cattle. But the Proxy went in the Procession no farther than the South Door; where the Mantle of his Principal was delivered to the Sexton.

The Drums and Trumpets continued in the Procession until the Return to the King's Guard Chamber. The Poor Knights, and Prebends, filed off on either Side in the Guard Chamber. The Officers of Arms, and the Four Serjeants at Arms, in the Presence Chamber. The Knights Companions divided on either Side in the Royal Apartment. The SOVEREIGN, having the Officers of the Order before him, went under the State; where he saluted the Knights by pulling off his Cap; and then retired till Dinner Time.

When the first Service was placed on the Tables of the SOVEREIGN and Knights; a Procession was made to Saint George's Hall, in the following Order:

The Officers of Arms—The Knights, in their Order—The Officers of the Order—The Lord Chamberlain—The Sword of State—The SOVEREIGN.

The Officers of Arms divided at the Lower End of the Hall; the Knights above them in a Line according to their Seniority (the Senior nearest to the State,) taking off their Caps and Feathers as the SOVEREIGN passed. The Officers of the Order proceeded before the SOVEREIGN to the Haut-Pas, and then went behind the Knights.

The SOVEREIGN being under his State, saluted the Knights; and the Princes of the Blood Royal ascended the Haut-Pas, and stood at the Ends of the Table; the Prince of Wales on His MAJESTY's Right Hand, and the other Princes of the Blood according to their Rank.

Grace being said by the Prelate, the SOVEREIGN sat down; and the Knights put on their Caps; and were conducted by the Officers of Arms to their Places at the Table. The Proxy took his Place below the Junior Knight.

A Table was placed at the lower End of the Hall for the Officers of the Order.

Towards the latter End of the First Course, a large gilt Cup being brought to the SOVEREIGN by the Earl of Uxbridge, acting as Cup-Bearer, His MAJESTY commanded Garter to signify to the Knights that he drank to them, who thereupon standing up uncovered, altogether pledged the SOVEREIGN; during which Time, the Trumpets sounded, and there was a Discharge of Cannon. The Knights then sat down, and put on their Caps.

The Second Course was then brought to the SOVEREIGN's Table with the usual Ceremony, preceded by the Lord Steward, and by several Officers of His Majesty's Household; and to the Table of the Knights, by the Yeomen of the Guard.

Immediately after, Garter, attended by all the Officers of Arms, advanced from the lower End of the Hall, with the usual Reverences, to the Haut-Pas; and he ascending the lowest Step, and crying "Largeffe," Thrice, proclaimed the SOVEREIGN's Style in Latin, French, and English.

The Officers of Arms then retired backwards, with the usual Reverences. Garter, and the Officers of Arms, then cried "Largeffe" Thrice.

Then Garter bowed to the Duke of Rutland, who standing up uncovered, Garter, with One "Largeffe," proclaimed His Grace's Style in English. Garter and the Officers of Arms then cried "Largeffe" once.

In like Manner, Garter proclaimed the Styles of the Earl of Hardwicke, the Duke of Beaufort, the Marquis of Abercorn, the Earl of Pembroke, the Earl of Winchilsea, and the Earl of Chesterfield.

The Banquet was afterwards brought up to the Tables of the SOVEREIGN and Knights with the same Ceremony as the second Course.

Their Royal Highnesses the Princes of the Blood were each attended during the Dinner by a Knight of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, in the Collar of that Order.

Dinner being ended, the Knights placed themselves in a Line as before Dinner; and Grace being said by the Prelate, and the SOVEREIGN having washed, the Knights altogether made their Reverences to His MAJESTY, who put off his Cap and saluted them.

Then the Knights and Officers returned to the Presence Chamber before the SOVEREIGN, in the same Order in which they came from thence.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Monarch, off Ramsgate, 25th of April 1805.

SIR,

YOU will be pleased to acquaint their Lordships, that I understand that Seven Dutch Schuyts, Part of a Convoy passing towards Boulogne from the

NO. 13800.

Eastward, were Yesterday cut off by some of the Boulogne Squadron; the Particulars of which, however, have not yet reached me: but I enclose a Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant Shirley, of the Gallant Gun-Brig, to Vice-Admiral Holloway, reporting the Particulars of the Discovery and first Attack upon this Convoy.

I have the Honor to be, &c. KEITH.

His Majesty's Gun-Vessel Gallant, Downs, 24th April 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to state to you, for the Information of the Commander in Chief, while sailing Guard off Ambleteuse this Day, at Six A. M. Rear-Admiral Douglas made the Watchful Gun-Brig, and Gallant's Signals to chase N. E.; on which Bearing I discovered a Number of the Enemy's Schuyts under Dutch Colours, endeavouring to round Cape Grifnez, from the Eastward. I made all possible Sail, in Company with the Watchful Gun-Brig, standing well in to cut them off. About Eight o'Clock I closed in with the Enemy, and commenced a well-directed Fire with Round and Grape, which threw them into great Confusion; but, unfortunately, having received Four Shot between Wind and Water from heavy Batteries, I was obliged to haul to the Wind on the Starboard Tack in order to stop the Leaks, which were gaining very fast. Under these Circumstances I was prevented from capturing the chief Part of this Flotilla. One of them I perceived struck to the Watchful; and I have the Satisfaction of adding, that the Inner Shore Squadron was in Pursuit of the Remainder. I am happy to say the Gallant has not a Man hurt, although she was engaged within Musket-Shot of the Batteries for nearly an Hour. The Officers and Crew under my Command conducted themselves with great Bravery. Mr. Joseph Derby, my Sub-Lieutenant, I beg Leave to recommend strongly to my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for his meritorious Conduct in attending so well to my Orders.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) THO. SHIRLEY.

Vice-Admiral Holloway, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, April 27, 1805.

SIR,

I TRANSMIT, for their Lordships' Information, Copies of a Letter from Captain Honynman, of His Majesty's Ship the Leda, to Rear-Admiral Douglas, and of the List to which it refers, reporting the Capture of Seven Vessels of the Enemy's Flotilla, Part of a Division Yesterday attacked on their Passage from the Eastward, towards Boulogne.

I have the Honor to be, &c. KEITH.

SIR, Leda, off Boulogne, April 24, 1805.

I HAVE the Honor of informing you, about Six o'Clock this Morning, Twenty-six of the Enemy's Vessels were discovered coming round Cape Grifnez: I immediately made the Signal for the detached Squadron to get under weigh, which consisted of the Vessels named in the Margin*, and have great Pleasure in acquainting you, that after engaging them about Two Hours, we succeeded in cutting off Seven Schuyts, a List of which I enclose. I am happy to acquaint you, there was only one slightly wounded on board the Archer, and that both Officers and Men who were employed on this Service, performed it to my Satisfaction.

The Gallant having received some Damage in her Hull, bore up for the Downes, which prevented my getting her Report. I am, &c.

(Signed) ROB. HONYMAN.

SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 1805.

India-Board, Whitehall, April 27, 1805.

THE following Accounts have this Day been received from India :

Copy of a Letter from Major of Brigade J. Menzies, to Captain Armstrong, Military Secretary to the Governor-General, dated Camp, Three Miles South West of Deeg, November 13, 1804.

SIR,

I AM directed by Major-General Frazer, to acquaint you, for the Information of His Excellency the Governor-General, that the Army under his Command arrived within three Cofs of the Fort of Deeg Yesterday, and found the Enemy very strongly encamped, with their Left extending to Deeg, and a large Jeel of Water extending to their Right, and covering the whole of their Front. From the late Hour at which the Army encamped, and not having correct Information of the Enemy's Position, the General thought it advisable to delay the Attack until this Morning. Having made his Arrangements for the Security of his Camp, he marched with the 1st Brigade of Infantry, under the Honorable Lieutenant-Colonel Monson; the 2d under Lieutenant-Colonel G. S. Browne; and the two Regiments of Native Cavalry, under Lieutenant-Col. T. Browne; and Part of the Park, under Lieutenant-Colonel Horsford, at Three o'Clock this Morning. We made a Circuit to our Left, round the Jeel, to enable us to come on their Right Flank; a little after Day-break, we formed in two Lines, attacked, and carried a large Village which was on their Right Flank. The Major-General immediately pursued his Success, and marched down on their Line, and took Possession of their Guns and Howitzers, which are now bringing into Camp. I regret to say, that General Frazer has been severely wounded while at the Head of the Troops leading them into Action, and in consequence, was obliged to be carried off the Field. The Honorable Colonel Monson then assumed the Command, and achieved what General Frazer so happily commenced. We drove the whole of the Enemy under the Fort of Deeg, when the People in the Fort opened a very heavy Fire on us. The Number of Guns is not yet ascertained, nor that of the Killed and Wounded, but our Loss has been severe. Regular Returns of the Number of Guns, and of the Killed and Wounded, will be sent by the Honorable Colonel Monson To-morrow, who will likewise give a detailed Account of the Action. Major General Frazer feels it impossible to express his high Sense of Obligation to the Whole of the Troops under his Command, for their undaunted Courage and Gallantry, particularly to His Majesty's 76th Regiment, who have, on this Occasion, as on every former one, done Honor to themselves and their Country.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) J. MENZIES, Major of Brigade.

Copy of a Letter from Brigadier-General Monson to His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley, dated Camp, near Deeg, November 14, 1804.

MY LORD,

HOWEVER proud and happy I may feel in communicating to your Excellency some Particulars, respecting the brilliant and decided Victory, which, through the Favour of Providence, we have obtained over the Whole of the Infantry and Guns of Jussunt Rao Holkar, commanded by his Chief Sirdar, Hernaut Dada, at the same Time I cannot sufficiently lament the Event which has made it fall to my Lot, in consequence of Major-General Frazer having received a severe Wound, which obliged him to quit the Field. I attribute our decided and glorious Victory over the Enemy, entirely to the Arrangements made for the Attack by Major-General Frazer, and to the Confidence and Enthusiasm with which he inspired the whole Army, heading His Majesty's 76th Regiment with the most undaunted Gallantry.

Your Excellency has already heard from Major-General Frazer, the Particulars respecting the Commencement of the Action.

After we had carried the Village, we descended the Hill, and charged the Enemy's advanced Party under a most tremendous Discharge of Round, Grape, and Chain, from their Guns, which they abandoned as we came up to them, retiring to fresh Batteries, the whole of which we carried for upwards of Two Miles, they flying before us in every Direction, Numbers of them perishing in the Swamp, which encompasses that Angle of the Fort of Deeg, and even in the Ditch of the Fort itself, being pursued by us close up to the very Walls. After having carried the different Ranges of Guns, which extended from the Village on their Right Flank, to the South East Angle of the Fort, we returned to attack a large Body of the Enemy, drawn up to the Eastward of the lower End of the Lake, and who kept annoying us with a most destructive Fire, from Eighteen and Twelve-Pounders, which, until now, we had no Opportunity of dispersing: these, however, were kept in Check by Major Hammond, with the 1st Battalion 2d Regiment, and Three Six-Pounders, who maintained his Position with the utmost Steadiness and Gallantry. I ordered some more Six-Pounders to be brought up, and, under Cover of their Fire, I moved round upon the Enemy's left Flank, who, as we advanced, made a precipitate Retreat into the Lake, where Numbers perished, amongst whom were, Mohommud Shah Khan, and Adill Khan, two of the principal Sirdars of the Allies. After this, the Enemy made no further Opposition, but entirely quitted the Field, flying in all Directions. Lieutenant Colonel Browne, with the 2d Regiment, and 3d Regiment of Native Cavalry, and Gallopers, continued to watch the Motions of a considerable Body of Horse during the Action, and afterwards moved down to the Field of Engagement, to protect the Removal of the captured Guns, and our Wounded, who were unavoidably left there. Lieutenant Colonel Ball at the same Time, moved down with the 3d Brigade to support the Cavalry.

I find it impossible to express my Gratitude and Obligation, for the Support I received from every Officer and Soldier engaged. Were I allowed to offer my individual Thanks, to Lieutenant-Colonel Horsford, commanding the Artillery, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Browne, commanding the 2d Brigade of Infantry, they are particularly due.

From Brigade Major Menzies, Captains Frazer and MacNight, the Officers of Major-General Frazer's Staff, I received the most active Assistance, for which I feel myself highly indebted. My sincere Thanks are also due to my Brigade-Major Captain Carr, and to Ensign Bowyer of the 12th Regiment Native Infantry, who acted as my Aide-de-Camp on this Occasion.

I should not be doing Justice to my Feelings were I not to mention, in the most pointed Manner, the undaunted Bravery and Steadiness of His Majesty's 76th Regiment, which was never more conspicuously displayed than on this Day.

I have equal Satisfaction in mentioning the Conduct of the 1st European Regiment under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Burnet, who shewed themselves in every Way worthy of the Name of British Troops.

From the most accurate Accounts I can obtain, the Enemy's Force consisted of Twenty-four Battalions, a considerable Body of Horse, and One Hundred and Sixty Pieces of Cannon, the greater Part of which is already brought to Camp. The Enemy's Loss, as far as I can ascertain, has been very great, and it is supposed, near Two Thousand have been killed and drowned in their Efforts to escape. At the same Time, glorious as has been the Result of this Day, I have to lament the Death of many a gallant Soldier.

The Remains of the Enemy's Army, which took Shelter in the Fort of Deeg, are in the greatest Consternation, and are deserting in vast Numbers.

I have the Honor to enclose a general Return of Killed, Wounded, and Missing, of the Corps engaged, and a Return of Ordnance, &c. captured and brought into Camp: more Guns are hourly discovered. I have the Satisfaction to add, that among the captured Guns, are Eleven Six-Pounders, and Two Twelve-Pounders lost by the Detachment under my Command.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) W. MONSON, Brigadier.

[Since the Receipt of the above Letters, a Dispatch had been received from Major-General Dowdeswell, dated Cawnpore, 17th November 1804, by which it appears that General Frazer's Leg had been amputated near the Ankle, and that this gallant and distinguished Officer was doing well.]

Copy a Letter from Lieutenant-General Lord Lake to His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley, dated Head Quarters, Futtyghur, Nov. 18, 1804.

My Lord,

MY Report* of Yesterday conveyed to your Lordship an Account of my Attack on the Enemy's Cavalry. I now think it my Duty to point out the very meritorious Conduct of the Troops engaged on this Occasion.

Since I left Delhi on the 31st Ultimo, the Troops have daily marched a Distance of Twenty-three or Twenty-four Miles. During the Day and Night previous to the Action, they marched Fifty-eight Miles, and from the Distance to which they pursued the Enemy, the Space passed over before they had taken up their Ground must have exceeded Seventy Miles.

The Patience, Perseverance, and Discipline which they displayed under such uncommon Fatigue, and the Activity, Zeal, and Resolution, with which they at last attacked the Enemy, are Circumstances which entitle them to my highest Praise and Approbation.

I feel myself particularly indebted on this Occasion to Colonel Macan, the Commander of Cavalry. The Merits of this Officer are so fully known to your Lordship, that I feel it unnecessary to say more than that he manifested the same Judgment, Spirit, and Zeal, which have so often distinguished him.

* The Dispatch alluded to, owing to some Accident, has not been received.

Lieutenant-Colonel Vandeleur, who commanded the 1st Brigade of Cavalry, brought his Corps into Action with the utmost Rapidity, and displayed the greatest Judgment and Gallantry in his repeated and vigorous Charges of the Enemy. His Majesty's 8th Regiment of Dragoons, commanded by Captain Abercrombie, and the 1st and 6th Regiments of Native Cavalry, the former commanded by Captain Welsh, and the latter by Captain Swinton, charged through different Bodies of the Enemy's Horse, with the greatest Resolution and Effect. A small Party of the 8th Dragoons, totally destroyed a considerable Body of Allypore Infantry, which formed Part of the Enemy's Force.

Lieutenant-Colonel Need, who commanded the Second Brigade, is likewise entitled to my highest Praise and Approbation. His Majesty's 27th and 29th Regiments of Light Dragoons, the former commanded by Captain Philpot, and the latter by Major Wade, and the 4th Regiment of Native Cavalry, commanded by Captain Elliott, attacked with the utmost Energy and Effect, the different Bodies of the Enemy to which they were opposed.

Lieutenant-Colonel Toone commanded the Advanced Guard, and deserves my Gratitude and Approbation for the Spirit and Activity which he displayed in that Situation.

I have great Satisfaction in reporting to your Lordship the very meritorious Conduct of Captain Browne, and the Corps of Horse Artillery under his Command, who, by the Rapidity of their Movements, were enabled to do great Execution. Capt. Browne's great Attention in the Management of his Corps, and his Zeal and Activity when called into Action, have on every Occasion merited my best Acknowledgments.

I cannot conclude this Dispatch without expressing to your Lordship the Satisfaction I have derived from the good Conduct of the Infantry, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Don. Though not present in the Affair of Yesterday, the Zeal and Patience with which they have supported the Fatigues of so arduous a March, deserve my warmest Thanks. Their Eagerness in the Pursuit would, there is no doubt, have been equalled by their Gallantry in the Attack of the Enemy, had they come up with them.

I have not yet ascertained completely where the Enemy have fled to, but all Accounts lead me to believe, that they are scattered over the Country, and no where collected in any considerable Numbers.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) G. LAKE.

St. James's, May 1, 1805.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Lord in Waiting) with the following Address, which was read by John Silvester, Esq; the Recorder:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave, with every Sentiment of Duty and Devotion to your Majesty's Person and Government, to approach your Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on the Discoveries which have been made by the Reports of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry, laid before your Majesty and the other Branches of the Legislature, from which your Majesty must have seen with Astonishment and Indignation, that an eminent Member of your Majesty's Government, the Lord Viscount Melville, had been guilty of Practices which the Representatives of the People, in Parliament assembled, have declared to be a gross Violation of the Law, and a high Breach of Duty.

We are persuaded that your Majesty's Royal Mind feels it to be a great Aggravation of Lord Melville's palpable, conscious, and deliberate Breach of a Statute, which he, beyond all others, was bound to observe with strict Fidelity, that he had filled so many and such high Offices in Executive Government, and was honoured with so large a Portion of your Majesty's Confidence.

The Virtues which adorn your Majesty, and which excite in the highest Degree the Love of your People, are a Pledge to the Nation that, in removing Lord Melville from your Majesty's Councils and Presence for ever, the Punishment of a Delinquent, however just, is far less a Motive with your Majesty than the Example held out, that no Minister, however favoured, shall presume upon your Majesty's Countenance, who shall be found to have trampled upon the Law, and to have disgraced the Functions with which he had been invested.

The Investigations of the Commissioners of Naval Inquiry have excited the Interest, and inspired the Country with Gratitude towards those Commissioners; and we are persuaded that your Majesty participates in the general Anxiety which pervades all Ranks for the Prolongation, and, if necessary, for the Enlargement of their Authority.

Confiding in your Majesty's paternal Solitude, that whatever is cheerfully contributed by a loyal People shall be faithfully administered, we entertain the fullest Assurance that, to your Majesty, it will be a Source of the profoundest Satisfaction, that all necessary Measures shall be adopted and persevered in towards the Correction and Punishment of proved Malversation, and that nothing will be omitted which shall have a Tendency to promote the public Confidence in Government, and to invigorate and confirm the Spirit, Energy, and Union of your Majesty's Empire at this important Crisis.

Signed by Order of Court,

WOODTHORPE.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I AM fully sensible of your Loyalty and Attachment to My Person and Government; you may rely on My Concurrence in every Measure which is calculated to maintain the Credit of the Country, and to remedy any Abuses which may be found to exist in the public Expenditure.

They were all very graciously received, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

Downing-Street, May 6, 1805.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been this Day received by Earl Camden, K. G. One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant-General Sir William Myers, Bart. commanding His Majesty's Troops in the Windward and Leeward Islands:

My Lord, Barbadoes, March 9, 1805.

I HAVE the Honor to enclose to your Lordship, Copy of a Dispatch from Brigadier-General Prevost, dated Dominica, 1st March; the Details contained therein are so highly reputable to the Brigadier-General, and the small Portion of Troops employed against so numerous an Enemy, that I have great Satisfaction in recommending their gallant Exertions may be laid before His Majesty; the Zeal and Talent manifested by the Brigadier-General upon this Occasion, it is my Duty to present for His Royal Consideration; and at the same Time I beg to be permitted to express the high Sense I entertain of the distinguished Bravery of His Majesty's Troops and the Militia of the Colony employed upon that Service. The vigorous Resistance which the Enemy have experienced, and the Loss which they have sustained in this Attack, must evince to them, that however inferior our Numbers were on this Occasion, British Troops are not to be hostily approached with Impunity, and had not the Town of Roseau been accidentally destroyed by Fire, we should have little to regret and much to exult in.

Your Lordship will perceive by the Returns that our Loss in Men, compared to that of the Enemy, is but trifling; but I have sincerely to lament that of Major Nunn, of the 1st West India Regiment, whose Wound is reported to be of a dangerous Kind; he is an excellent Man, and a meritorious Officer. I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) W. MYERS.

Head-Quarters, Prince Rupert's, Dominica, March 1, 1805.

SIR,
ABOUT an Hour before the Dawn of Day on the 22d Ult., an Alarm was fired at Scotchhead, and soon after a Cluster of Ships was discovered off Roseau. As our Light increased, I made out Five large Ships, Three Frigates, Two Brigs, and small Craft, under British Colours,—a Ship of Three Decks carrying a Flag at the Mizzen. The Frigates ranging too close to Fort Young, I ordered them to be fired on, and soon after, Nineteen large Barges full of Troops, appeared coming from under the Lee of the other Ships, attended and protected by an Armed Schooner full of Men, and Seven other Boats carrying Carronades. The English Flag was lowered, and that of France hoisted.

A Landing was immediately attempted on my Left Flank, between the Town of Roseau and the Post of Cachecrow. The Light Infantry of the 1st West India Regiment were the first on the March to support Captain Senant's Company of Militia, which, throughout the Day, behaved with great Gallantry. It was immediately supported by the Grenadiers of the 46th Regiment. The first Boats were beat off, but the Schooner and one of the Brigs coming close in Shore to cover the Landing, compelled our Troops to occupy a better Position; a Defile leading to the Town. At this Moment I brought up the Grenadiers of the St. George's Regiment of Militia, and soon after the Remainder of the 46th, and gave over to Major Nunn these brave Troops, with Orders not to yield to the Enemy One Inch of Ground: Two Field Pieces (an Amuzette and a Six Pounder) were brought into Action for their Support, under the Command of Serjeant Creed of the 46th Regiment, manned by additional Gunners and Sailors.—These Guns, and a Twenty-four Pounder from Melville Battery, shook the French advancing Column by the Execution they did.

I sent Two Companies of the St. George's Militia, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Constable, and a Company of the 46th to prevent the Enemy from getting into the Rear of the Position occupied by Major Nunn.

On my Return I found the Majestueux, of One Hundred and Twenty Guns, laying opposite to Fort Young, pouring into the Town and Batteries her Broadside; followed by the other Seventy-four, and Frigates doing the same.

Some Artillery, several Captains of Merchantmen, with their Sailors, and the Artillery Militia, manned Five Twenty-four Pounders, and Three Eighteens, at the Fort, and Five Twenty-fours at Melville's Battery; and returned an uninterrupted Fire. From the first Post Red-hot Shot were thrown. At about Ten o'Clock, A. M. Major Nunn, most unfortunately for His Majesty's Service, whilst faithfully executing the Order I had given, was wounded, I fear, mortally.

This did not discourage the brave fellows.— Captain O'Connell, of the 1st West India Regiment, received the Command, and a Wound, almost at the same Time; however the last Circumstance could not induce him to give up the Honor of the first, and he continued in the Field animating his Men, and resisting the repeated Charges of the Enemy until about One o'Clock, when he obliged the French to retire from their advanced Position with great Slaughter. It is impossible for me to do Justice to the Merit of that Officer. You will, I doubt not, favorably report his Conduct to His Majesty, and at the same Time that of Captain James, who commanded the 46th, and Captain Archibald Campbell, who commanded the Grenadiers of the 46th. Foiled and beat off on the Left, the Right Flank was attempted, and a considerable Force was landed near Morne Daniel. The Regulars not exceeding Two Hundred, employed on the Left in opposing the Advance of their Columns, consisting of upwards of Two Thousand Men, could afford me no Reinforcement, I had only the Right Wing of the St. George's Regiment of Militia to oppose to them, of about One Hundred Men. They attacked with Spirit, but unfortunately the Frigates had stood in so close to the Shore to protect this Disembarkation, that after receiving a destructive Fire, they fell back and occupied the Heights of Woodbridge Estate. Then it was, that a Column of the Enemy marched up to Morne Daniel, and stormed the Redoubt, defended by a small Detachment, which, after an obstinate Resistance, they carried. On my Left, Captain O'Connell was gaining Ground, notwithstanding a fresh Supply of Troops and several Field-Pieces which had been brought on Shore by the Enemy. I now observed a large Column climbing the Mountains to get in his Rear.

The Town, which had been for some Time in Flames, was only protected by a light Howitzer and a Six-Pounder to the Right, supported by Part of the Light Company of the St. George's Regiment. The Enemy's large Ships in Wood-Bridge Bay out of the Reach of my Guns, my Right Flank gained, my Retreat to Prince Rupert's almost cut off, I determined on one Attempt to keep the Sovereignty of the Island, which the excellent Troops I had warranted. I ordered the Militia to remain at their Polls, except such as were inclined to encounter more Hardships and severe Service; and Captain O'Connell, with the 46th, under the Command of Captain James, and the Light Company of the 1st West-India Regiment, were directed to make a forced March to Prince Rupert's. I then allowed the President to enter into Terms for the Town of Roseau; and then demanded from the French General that private Property should be respected, and that no wanton or disgraceful Pillage should be allowed. This done, only attended by Brigade-Major Prevost, and Deputy Quarter-Master-General Hopley, of the Militia Forces, I crossed the Island, and, in Twenty-four Hours, with the Aid of the Inhabitants, and the Exertions of the Caribs, got to this Garrison on the 23d.—After Four Days' continued March, through the most difficult Country, I might almost say existing, Captain O'Connell joined me at Prince Rupert's, wounded himself, and bringing in his wounded, with a few of the Royal Artillery, and the precious Remainder of the 46th Regiment, and the 1st West India Light Company.

I had no sooner got to the Fort than I ordered Cattle to be drove in, and took Measures for getting a Store of Water from the River in the Bay. I found my Signals to Lieutenant-Colonel Broughton, from Roseau, made soon after the Enemy had landed, had been received, and that, in consequence, he had made the most judicious Arrangements his Garrison would allow of for the Defence of this important Post.

On the 25th I received the Letter of Summons I have now the Honor to transmit, from General of Division La Grange, and, without Delay, sent the Reply you will find accompanying it.

On the 27th the Enemy's Cruizers hovered about the Head; however, the Centaur's Tender (Vigilante) came in, and was saved by our Guns. I landed Mr. Henderson, her Commander, and his Crew, to assist in the Defence we were prepared to make.

As far as can be collected, the Enemy had about Four Thousand Men on board, and the whole of their Force was compelled to disembark before they gained an Inch of Ground.

I intrust this Dispatch to Captain O'Connell, to whom I beg to refer you: his Services entitle him to Consideration. I am much indebted to the Zeal and Discernment of Fort-Adjutant Gualy, who was very necessary to the due Execution of my Orders.

I cannot pass unnoticed the very soldier-like Conduct of Lieutenant Wallis, of the 46th Regiment, to whom I had entrusted the Post of Cachecrow, or Scotthead; perceiving our Retreat, he spiked his Guns, destroyed his Ammunition, and immediately commenced his March to join me at Prince Rupert's, with his Detachment:—nor that of Lieutenant Shaw of the same Regiment, who acted as an Officer of Artillery, and behaved with uncommon Coolness and Judgment, whilst on the Battery, and great Presence of Mind in securing the Retreat of the additional Gunners belonging to the 46th Regiment.

On the 27th, after levying a Contribution on Roseau, the Enemy re-embarked; and hovered that Day and the next about this Post. This Morning, the the French Fleet is seen off the South End of Guadaloupe, under easy Sail.

Our Loss, you will perceive by the Returns I have the Honor to transmit, was inconsiderable, when compared with that acknowledged by the Enemy, which included several Officers of Rank, and about Three Hundred others.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

GEORGE PREVOST.

Lieutenant-General Sir William Myers, Bart.

P. S. As I find I cannot spare Captain O'Connell from the Duty of this Garrison, I must refer you to the Master of a Neutral Vessel, who has engaged to deliver this Dispatch.

(TRANSLATION.)

From the General of Division La Grange, &c. to His Excellency General Prevost, &c.

Head-Quarters at Roseau, the 5th Ventose, Year 13, February 25, 1805.

The General of Division La Grange, Grand Officer of the Legion of Honor, Inspector General of the Gendarmerie, Commander in Chief of the Troops of the Expedition to the Leeward Islands.

GENERAL,

BEFORE I commence any Military Operations against the Fort, into which it appears that you have retired, I shall fulfil a preliminary Duty, authorized and practised by civilized Nations.

You are aware, no less than myself, of the Nature of your Position, and of the entire Inutility of occasioning any further Effusion of Blood. You witnessed with Grief the melancholy Fate of the Town of Roseau; my first Endeavours on entering it were to issue Orders for stopping the Progress of the Conflagration; but, unfortunately, considerable Destruction had already taken place.

The Want of Necessaries is ever attended with the most cruel Consequences, the Evils of which can easily be calculated. This Consideration alone is more than sufficient, without Reference to the particular Circumstances in which you are placed, to induce you to accept the honorable Conditions that I am ready to grant you, and thus to preserve the interesting Inhabitants of this Colony from fresh Calamities, which are inseparable from the Occurrences of War.

I beg you, General, to make me an early Communication of your Answer; and, in the mean Time, to receive the Assurance of the high Consideration which I entertain for you.

I have the Honor to salute you.

*Brimstone-Hill, Saint Kitt's,
March 8, 1805.*

SIR,

I DID myself the Honor of Writing to you on the 27th Inst., by the Mail-Boat, to say that Intelligence had been received here, on that Morning, of the Arrival of a French Force at Dominica, and the Steps I had taken to make such Circumstances known to Government.—I lost no Time in placing this Garrison in the best State to repel any Attack that might be made by the Enemy, and encreasing the Provisions to a Quantity sufficient to maintain a Garrison of Five Hundred Men for Three Months, which was, by the Exertion of the Resident Commissary, effected on the 1st Inst.

I have now to inform you, that on the Morning of the 5th Inst., a French Squadron, consisting of Five Line of Battle Ships, (one a Three Decker) Three Frigates, Two Brigs of War, and a Schooner, with (according to Accounts since received) Three Thousand Five Hundred Men on board, appeared off Nevis Point, and stood in for Basse Terre, where the Frigates only anchored.

I did not think it consistent with the Safety of this Garrison, to divide the small Force of Regulars, Troops under my Command, and the Militia being found inadequate to give effectual Opposition, it was previously agreed with President Woodley, that Three Hundred of them should be thrown into this Garrison in the Event of the Enemy's effecting a Landing; in consequence of which, and the Enemy having landed about Five Hundred Men at Basse Terre, he marched in here (with great Promptness) on the same Day with the above Five Hundred Men, including Seamen and Militia. The Enemy took Possession of the Town, demanding the immediate Payment of Forty Thousand Pounds Sterling, in Failure of which it should be burned. The Inhabitants with great Difficulty raised Eighteen, with which Sum they embarked, intimating an Intention of attacking this Hill, and, from the State of Preparation we were in, as well as the Zeal shewn by the Troops in this Garrison, I have every Reason to believe that the Result would have been such as you would wish. It does not appear, however, that this Squadron wish to attack where Opposition may be expected, but to plunder the Inhabitants and burn and destroy the Shipping. Six Merchant Ships, some of them very valuable, have been towed from the Anchorage in Basse Terre, set on Fire, and allowed to drift to Sea.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Admiralty-Office, May 21, 1805.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated off Ramsgate the 19th Instant.

SIR,

I TRANSMIT, for their Lordships' Information, a Letter which I have received from Captain Jackson, of His Majesty's Sloop the Musquito, acquainting me with the Capture of Two of the Enemy's small Privateers.

I have the Honor to be, &c. KEITH.

*His Majesty's Sloop Musquito, North
My Lord, Yarmouth Roads, April 14, 1805.*

I BEG to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on the 12th Instant. Scarbro' West Thirteen Miles, Three Sail were discovered in the Offing, Two of them firing Guns apparently to bring-to the Third. I immediately made Sail in Chace of them. The First I came up with was a Sloop from Guernsey, with a Cargo of Contraband Goods, who informed me, that the other Two were French Privateers; no Time was lost in making all Sail after them, and though Night was setting in, I am happy to say we succeeded in capturing the First about Twelve o'Clock, and the other shortly after Daylight the next Morning; they proved to be the Orestes and Pylades, Dutch-built Koffs, fitted out as a Deception, with a French Commission, but generally under Prussian Colours, commanded by Citizens Wepperman and Cavin, each armed with a Twenty-Four-Pound Carronade, Six Swivels, a considerable Number of small Arms, and manned with Thirty-three Men; this is their first Cruise; they have been at Sea Three Weeks, but owing to the bad Weather have made no Captures. By their Charts I find their Views were directed chiefly against the Trade on the Coast of Scotland, and might have done a great deal of Mischief, as no one would have suspected them of being Privateers.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) S. JACKSON.

SIR,

I HEREWITH enclose you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Colby, of His Majesty's Ship Eagle, of his having captured the Empereur French Privateer. She is a remarkable fast-sailing Vessel, and appears well calculated to cruise in these Seas against the Enemy's Privateers, which are very numerous.

I am, &c. ALEX. COCHRANE.

His Majesty's Ship Eagle, Carlisle Bay, April 3, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that the Schooner I parted Company from the Squadron by Signal last Evening, I came up and captured at Midnight; she proved to be the Empereur Privateer, belonging to Guadaloupe; she is a very fine Vessel of her Description, coppered and sails well, is One Hundred and Sixty Tons, mounts Fourteen Six-Pounders, and had on board Eighty-two Men; has been Forty-six Days at Sea, but made no Captures.

I have the Honor to be &c.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Dacres, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Port Royal, March 15, 1805.

SIR,

I ENCLOSE you, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter this Day received, (under Cover of one from Captain Atkins, of the Seine,) acquainting me of the Rein Deer having captured a Spanish Privateer.

I am, &c.

J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Sloop Rein Deer. off Montego Bay, 7th March 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Pleasure to inform you, that after a Chace of Five Hours and a Half, in Company with His Majesty's Sloop Hunter, I have captured the Spanish Schooner Privateer Santa Rosalia Galandrina, commanded by Francisco de Naras, having on board Fifty-seven Men.

Previous to our falling in with her, she appears to have mounted Three Guns, which were thrown overboard during the Chace, (one of Eight and a Half and Two of Four Pounds Calibre,) and has on board Musketry for the Whole of her Crew.

She sails remarkably fast; is victualled for Fourteen Days; left Calodam, in Cuba, Yesterday, but belongs to St. Jago; has taken nothing during her Cruise.

The Privateer I have sent into Port Royal, under the Protection of His Majesty's Sloop Hunter, with the greatest Part of her Crew, having only Fifteen remaining on board the Rein Deer.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

J. FYFFE.

David Atkins, Esq; commanding His Majesty's Ship Seine.

SIR,

THE enclosed Copy of a Letter from Captain Impey, of His Majesty's Sloop Epervier, which I send for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty gives an Account of the Capture of a small French Privateer.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SAM. HOOD.

SIR, Epervier, Tortola, Jan. 31, 1805.

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that on the 26th Instant, Crab Island bearing North, Two Leagues, I saw a suspicious Sail to the Southward, and after a Chace of Five Hours in His Majesty's Sloop under my Command, came up with, and captured L'Elizabeth French Schooner Privateer, belonging to Mariagalante, mounting Four Carriage Guns, with Mulkets, Pistols, Cutlasses, &c and manned with Thirty-four Men, one of whom was killed by their obdurate Attempt to escape. The Schooner had previously taken a Sloop, belonging to Tortola, and sent her into St. Thomas.

I have the Honor to be, &c

JOHN IMPEY.

Sir Samuel Hood, K. B. Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

THE following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Francis Lord Napier, His Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honorable Lord Hawkesbury, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty's most gracious Letter to this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland hath been received by us with the highest Gratitude and Respect.

Sensible that we owe the Sanction of your Royal Authority to the Importance of that Institution of which we are Members, and to the Approbation which your Majesty is pleased to express of the Firmness, the Wisdom, and the Moderation of former Assemblies, we will earnestly endeavour to preserve the same Claims to your Royal Regard and Protection.

We bless God that we live under the Government of a Prince, who encourages our Exertions in support of true Religion and Virtue, and who exhorts us to persevere in every Effort, which can be beneficial to that sacred Cause. We trust, that through the Divine Blessing, we shall be enabled to profit by the salutary Recommendation.

Our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government are fixed on the firmest Foundation; Experience of the Happiness we enjoy under our invaluable Constitution. For the Security of that Constitution we will not cease to labour, by inculcating upon all those who are committed to our Charge, Submission to the Laws, a just Veneration for constituted Authorities, and disinterested Zeal for the common Welfare.

The renewed Appointment of Lord Napier to represent your Royal Person in this Assembly, is a most pleasing Mark of your Majesty's Paternal Indulgence. The Experience which we have had of his Wisdom and Integrity—His Love of his Country, and Zeal in whatever concerns the Interests of Religion and Virtue, make your Majesty's Choice on this Occasion most acceptable to us.

We rely with Gratitude and Confidence on the Assurance, which your Majesty is pleased to repeat of your unalterable Resolution to maintain the Church of Scotland, in the full Possession and Enjoyment of all its Rights and Privileges, as by Law established.

Your Royal Donation of One Thousand Pounds, to be employed for propagating our Christian Faith in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, we receive with the warmest Gratitude, as a Pledge of your Majesty's Confidence in us, and of your Zeal for the Interests of Religion and Virtue, and we shall study to apply it in the most prudent and effectual Manner, for promoting the pious Purpose for which it is bestowed.

That Almighty God, the Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ, may protect your Majesty's Person, establish your Government, and prosper your Administration; that He may bless abundantly our gracious Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Members of your illustrious House; that He may long continue to us the Blessings which we enjoy under your Reign; and that He may bestow on you hereafter a heavenly Crown, are the Prayers of, May it please your Majesty, Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by Geo. Hamilton, Moderator. Edinburgh, May 18, 1805.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in our General Assembly, desire to approach the Throne, in the present Circumstances of National Danger, for the Purpose of expressing our affectionate and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Deeply impressed with a sense of the invaluable Blessings which our Country has so long enjoyed under the Operation of equal Laws, and under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, we cannot look without much Anxiety to the Progress of a War, in which the avowed Design of our inveterate Foe is the Subversion of our Liberty and Independence. And we lament that the Conduct of another Nation, under the Influence of the Enemy with whom we chiefly contend, has at length rendered it indispensable for your Majesty to extend still more widely the Scene of this arduous Contest; yet it is impossible not to perceive, in the present Condition of that Nation, and of other States that have yielded to the same domineering Foe, the most decisive Evidence that our Safety, under God, depends upon a Spirit of vigorous and determined Resistance, proportioned to whatever shall be the Difficulties, and the necessary Duration, of the War in which we are engaged.

As Servants of the God of Peace, we rejoiced to hear that a Pacific Overture had been received by your Majesty. But, while we repose entire Confidence in your Majesty's Counsels, for acceding at any Time to such Terms of Peace as may be consistent with the permanent Safety and Interests of the British Empire, we cannot forget that these Objects are intimately connected with the general Security and Independence of Europe, and that the Maintainance of our National Honour is indispensable to our National Safety. We, therefore, congratulate your Majesty on the patriotic Zeal, so universally manifested by your Subjects, as the best Pledge of our ultimately rising Superior to the Power of our enemies. And, feeling ourselves, in some Measure, responsible for those under our Charge, we have much Satisfaction in assuring your Majesty of the confirmed Loyalty, and ardent Patriotism of the People of Scotland.

We are proud to think that, notwithstanding the extensive Preparations that were early made for the Invasion of our Coasts, the Enemy has been hitherto deterred from the Attempt, by the well-known State of our National Defence, and the unexampled Ardour that has been manifested in our Country's Cause; and, if the Perseverance of our Countrymen shall be equal to their Ardour, we are confident that, under God, we shall remain a Free and Independent People.

While we look, therefore, to the Great Arbitrer of Nations, for his continued Protection, we feel that no other worldly Object is, in such Circumstances, entitled to stand in Competition with an unremitted Discharge of our Duty to our Country. We pledge ourselves to our King, in the Presence of God, that we shall be unceasing in our Endeavours to impress upon the People under our Charge an indelible Sense of what they owe to our National Cause. And we hope, to whatever Period the destructive Machinations of our Enemies may be protracted, it will be found that Britons are not unprepared to defend an Inheritance derived from Men who thought it worthy to be purchased with their Blood, and who have left to us but in Trust for the Generations that are yet to come.

That Almighty God may continue to bless the Means employed for our National Defence; that He may guide your Majesty's Councils, and give Success to your Fleets and Armies; that He may soon restore to us the Blessings of an honorable and permanent Peace; that your Majesty may long reign over a free and loyal People, and that you may, at length, exchange an earthly for a heavenly Crown, are the fervent Prayers of, May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, and most obedient Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by Geo. Hamilton, Moderator. Edinburgh, May 18, 1805.

LORD CHANCELLOR. Wednesday the 15th Day of May in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, 1805, between Richard Poole and John Hinckesman, Plaintiffs; John Wheeler, John Dodson, and Joseph Carleis, Defendants.

Forasmuch as this Court was this present Day informed, by Mr. Benyon, of Counsel for the Plaintiffs, that the Plaintiffs, on the 7th Day of February 1804, filed their Bill of Revivor in this Court against the Defendant John Wheeler, as by the Six Clerks' Certificate appears, and took out Process of Subpœna, requiring him to appear to and answer the same, but the Defendant John Wheeler hath not so done; that it appears by the Affidavit of Jeremiah Duneau, that on a strict Search and diligent Enquiry at the late usual Place of Residence of the Defendant John Wheeler, and elsewhere, he could not find the said Defendant John Wheeler to serve him with a Subpœna issued out of and under the Seal of this Court, by which said Subpœna the said John Wheeler was commanded to appear in this Court the 23d Day of January 1805, at the Suit of the Plaintiffs; that on the 22d of the same January the said Jeremiah Duneau inquired at the late Dwelling-House of the said John Wheeler, at Hill-Top, in the County of Stafford, where the said John Wheeler was to be found, and he was informed by a Woman, (whom he believed was the Servant-Maid of the Person then residing at the said Dwelling-House,) that the said John Wheeler had left his Dwelling-House upwards of a Year, and was gone to America, which Information the said Jeremiah Duneau believed to be true, the said Jeremiah Duneau having heard from many other Persons that the said John Wheeler had long since absconded, and was gone to reside in America; and the said Jeremiah Duneau believed that the said John Wheeler was gone beyond the Seas, in order to avoid being served with the said Subpoena and other Writs; and the said Certificate and Affidavit being read, it is thereupon ordered, that the Defendant John Wheeler do appear to the Plaintiffs' said Bill on or before the First Day of next Trinity Term.

The Prelate.

The SOVEREIGN.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being seated, the Register, in the Absence of the Chancellor, signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's Pleasure for filling up the vacant Stall in St. George's Chapel at Windfor; and as, by the Statutes, none but a Knight can be elected, Garter was commanded to introduce the Earl of Dartmouth, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, who was knighted by the Sovereign with the Sword of State, and thereupon withdrew.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the Election; and the Suffrages being collected by the Register, and presented to the Sovereign, George Earl of Dartmouth was, by His Majesty's Command, declared duly elected. His Lordship was thereupon received at the Door of the Chapter-Room by the Two Junior Knights Companions, and conducted between them to the Sovereign, preceded by Garter, bearing the Ensigns of the Order on a Cushion.

Garter presenting the Garter to the Sovereign,

His Majesty, assisted by the Two Senior Knights Companions, buckled it on the Earl's Left Leg, the Register pronouncing the Admonition.

Garter then presented the Ribband with the George to the Sovereign; and, the Earl kneeling, the Sovereign, with the Assistance of the said Two Senior Knights Companions, put it over His Lordship's Shoulder, the Register, in the mean Time, pronouncing the Admonition, and His Lordship having kissed His Majesty's Hand, and saluted the Knights present, withdrew.

The Chapter ended, Garter called over the Knights, and a Procession was made back to His Majesty's Apartment in the Order as before.

The Queen, Their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, and many Ladies and other Persons of Distinction, were present.

A splendid Entertainment was provided for the Knights Companions, to which the Officers of the Order had the Honor of being invited.

DISPATCHES have been received Overland at the India-House from Bombay, dated the 21st of December 1804, enclosing a Copy of a Letter from Lord Lake to Marquis Wellesley, of the 17th of November, giving an Account of the Result of his Attack upon the Cavalry of Jeswunt Rao Holkar, commanded by that Chief in Person upon that Day, being the Letter which was referred to by Lord Lake in his subsequent Letter of the 18th of November, as published in the London Gazette Extraordinary of the 27th of April 1805, and which was noticed in that Gazette as not having then arrived in England.

To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley, Governor-General, &c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship that, in pursuance of my Intentions, expressed in my Dispatch of Yesterday's Date, I reached this Place this Morning, with the Cavalry, before Day-break, after a March of upwards of Thirty-four Miles.

The Enemy occupied a Position close under the Walls of Furruckabad, and I completely succeeded in surprising them. The Consequence has been, that vast Numbers of their Men and Horses have been destroyed, and the Whole Cattle and Baggage taken, which they possessed.

Jeswunt Rao Holkar escaped by an early Flight, but his Troops, in the greatest Confusion, were pursued, and every where cut to pieces by my Cavalry. I am happy to add, that we have sustained very little Loss, either in Men or Horses.

I have not Time, at the present Moment, to express the Satisfaction I have derived from the good Conduct of all the Corps engaged, but I shall have the Honor of forwarding to your Lordship my Sentiments on this Subject as soon as possible.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) G. LAKE.

Head-Quarters, Furruckabad, Nov. 17, 1804.

The same Dispatches contain the following Paragraphs respecting our Military Operations in Malwa:

"WE feel also much Pleasure in reporting the successful Progress of the Division of the Army in Malwa, under the Command of Colonel Murray, which, after completing the Conquest of Holkar's Possessions West of the Chumbiel, reached Muccondra on the 30th of November, and still continued to advance."

"On the 8th Instant * General Jones was at Jowra, one March beyond Rutlam, and would probably have joined Colonel Murray's Army by or before the present Date."

* December 1804.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 28, 1807.

Notice is hereby given, that there will be no Drawing-Room at St. James's before Tuesday the 4th of June next, His Majesty's Birth-Day.

Office of the Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament under the Convention with the United States of America, Great Marlborough-Street, 27th May 1805.

ORDERED—That Notice be published in the London Gazette that the First and Second Instalments under the Convention have now been paid into the Bank of England, in the Names of the Commissioners, pursuant to the Act.

Ordered further—That the following General Order and Resolutions of the Board be in like Manner published in the London Gazette.

July 12, 1804.

Ordered—That all Persons who claim before this Board in the Characters of Executors, Administrators, or other Representatives of Persons deceased, Guardians or Tutors, and Curators of Persons under Age, surviving Partners of Companies under Articles of Partnership or otherwise, Assignees under Commissions of Bankrupt in England, or Trustees for Creditors under the Law of Sequestration in Scotland, hold themselves prepared to exhibit, and, when called upon, to prove their respective Titles to receive and give good and sufficient Acquittances for such Payments as the Board may award, and to make Assignments, if required, as the Act directs; and that such Claimants be apprised, that in all Cases of doubtful or complicated Title, the Board will require to have produced to them the Opinion of His Majesty's Attorney-General, or Solicitor-General, or any one of His Majesty's Counsel, for all Cases under the Law of England, and of the Lord Advocate or Solicitor-General for Scotland, or any one of His Majesty's Advocates Depute there, for all Cases under the Law of Scotland; whereupon the Board will, in every such Case, either admit the Title, or direct such Measures for completing the same as may appear to be necessary.

March 16, 1805.

Resolved—That as soon as the Board, in the Course and Order of Investigation suggested by the different Subjects before them, are in any Case satisfied by the Statements and Evidence adduced, that any considerable Part of the Claim is just, (the Title of the Claimant or Claimants, if within any of the Descriptions set forth in the General Order of the 12th of July last, being shewn to be good in the Manner therein directed,) a Special Adjudication and Order for a Dividend, or Payment in Part, or on Account, will in such Case be made; that as the Amount of every Dividend, or Payment in Part, or on Account, will be calculated in Proportion to the total Amount of Claims not then rejected, and the Amount of the divisible Fund at the Time, additional Dividends or Payments will afterwards of course be made, in Proportion to the Diminution of the total Amount of Claims, by Rejections or Disallowances, under the Decisions or Adjudications of the Board, or the Increase of the divisible Fund, by the Receipt of another Instalment under the Convention; and that in all Cases where Orders for Dividends or Payments are made, immediate Notice thereof will be given to the Claimants, or their respective Agents, that they may severally attend for the Purpose of receiving the same, on such Terms as the Board, under the Authority of the Act, shall see Cause to prescribe.

March 18, 1805.

Resolved—That in every Case where it shall appear from the subsequent Investigation that a Claimant has, by Means of any Order or Orders from the Board for a Dividend, or Payment in Part, received more than such Claimant was then entitled to receive, the Board, in ascertaining the Amount of the next Dividend, Proportion, or Sum of Money to be paid to the Claimant, will deduct such Excess in the former Payment or Payments, so as that the Amount of the Sums in such Case awarded and received may not, in the Whole, exceed the Compensation to which such Claimant was justly entitled.

27th May 1805.

Resolved—That from the Misapprehensions which still appear to prevail, respecting the Losses for which British Creditors were entitled to expect Compensation under the Fourth Article of the Treaty of Peace, the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity, and the Convention, as if Claimants had a Right to Compensation for the Amount of all the Debts which were due to them by Citizens or Inhabitants of the United States at the Peace, and still remain due, it is expedient thus distinctly to declare, what from the obvious Reason of the Case, and plain Terms of the said Articles, as well as the various Notices and Explanations from the Board, might have been inferred, that there never was any ground for claiming Compensation, and that none can be obtained.

1st, For Loss of Debts, however fairly contracted, and still justly due, which were not good at the Peace, or the Period when they might have been recovered, if lawful Impediments had not operated against them.

2dly, For Loss occasioned by Circumstances arising in the Course of the War, such as the Loss of Books, Vouchers, or other Papers, the Effect of which could not be ascribed to any Breach of the Fourth Article of the Treaty of Peace.

3dly, For such Loss arising to Creditors from the Dishonesty or Embarrassments and Speculations of their Debtors, and the Practices of dilatory Litigation, as no Compliance on the Part of the United States with the said Fourth Article of the Treaty of Peace would have prevented.

4thly, For Loss occasioned by such Negligence or Mismanagement, and irrational Conduct in Creditors or their Agents, as shall, on due Consideration of all Circumstances, be held by the Board to come within the Meaning and Description of the Provision against the Effect of "Negligence and wilful Omission," which was expressly stipulated in Favour of the United States by the said Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity; and which Provision, wherever it applied, would have barred all Compensation under that Article, and must therefore bar Compensation under the Convention.

And that wherever Loss appears to have arisen from any of the above Causes, the Board will make such equitable Deduction or Allowance, as a fair Construction of the said Sixth Article would have entitled the United States to demand.

Resolved further—That the Conduct of Claimants before the Board, either on the one Hand in fairly disclosing Facts within their Knowledge, and making the necessary Enquiries; or on the other, in concealing or misrepresenting Facts within their Knowledge, and professing total Ignorance of Circumstances, without some Knowledge of which, no precise Claim could even, from the plain Meaning of the Fourth Article of the Treaty of Peace, the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity, and the Convention have been honestly made; or in delaying or abstaining from all Enquiry respecting such Facts as the Notices published so far back as the Year 1777, and repeated by this Board required, will be held by the Board as strong Evidence, sufficient, in different Degrees, to turn the Course of Presumption and Inference either for or against such Claimants accordingly.

THO. MACDONALD.
HENRY PYE RICH.
J. GUILLEMARD.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose herewith, a Copy of a Letter received by me from Lieutenant J. C. Carpenter, commanding His Majesty's Schooner Milbrook; and am, &c.

F. J. SNELL.

His Majesty's Schooner Milbrook, off the Bayonna Islands, May 9, 1805.

SIR,

I BEG to inform you, that His Majesty's Schooner under my Command, captured on the 6th Instant, off Oporto, the Spanish Lugger Privateer La Travea of Three Guns, with small Arms and Forty Men; she had the Day before captured a Brig, laden with Wine, from Oporto; on receiving the Information, I made Sail for Vigo, to which Port I concluded she was sent. This Morning, the Bayonna Islands bearing East about Eight Leagues, I observed a Brig standing for the Northern Passage, I immediately made Sail for the Southern Passage, and succeeded in capturing her within the Bayonnas, at the Entrance of Vigo River. She proved to be the Stork English Brig, bound to Newfoundland, laden with Salt, had been captured from the Newfoundland Convoy on the 9th Ultimo, by the Fenix Spanish Privateer Brig of Twelve Guns.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOHN C. CARPENTER.

To F. J. Snell, Esq; Commander of His Majesty's Sloop Avon, Lisbon.

Admiralty-Office, June 8, 1805.

Copy of a Letter from Sir Richard Bickerton, Bart. Rear-Admiral of the Red, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Royal Sovereign, at Gibraltar, the 13th May 1805.

SIR,

I HEREWITH transmit to you, to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of a Letter, dated the 8th Instant, from the Honorable Captain Boyle, of His Majesty's Ship Seahorse, to Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, giving an Account of his having attacked a Spanish Convoy, from which he succeeded in capturing an Ordnance Brig, laden with Powder. The Conduct of Lieutenant Downie, who commanded the Boats on this Occasion, as well as of the other Officers of the Seahorse, is highly spoken of by Captain Boyle, as their Lordships will observe.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

R. BICKERTON.

His Majesty's Ship Seahorse, Gibraltar Bay, May 8, 1805.

MY LORD,

ON the 4th Instant, I learnt that a Spanish Convoy was on the Coast to the Westward of Carthage, chiefly loaded on Government Account, with Gunpowder, Ordnance, and Naval Stores for the Gun Boats at Malaga, Ceuta, and Algeziras. Conceiving the Destruction of the fame of consequence, I kept close along Shore with the Hope of falling in with them, and effecting my Wishes; at Two P.M. they were discovered from the Mast-Head; at Five I observed them haul into St. Pedro, an Anchorage to the Eastward of Cape de Gatte, under the Protection of a Fort, Two Armed Schooners, and Three Gun and Mortar Launches, where I determined to attempt to destroy them; the Vessel of greatest Consequence to get out was an Ordnance Brig loaded with One Thousand One Hundred and Seventy Quintals of Powder, and various other Stores, commanded by Don Juan Terragut, Master in the Spanish Navy; and which was effected by Lieutenant Downie, First of the Seahorse, in a Six oared Cutter, in the most gallant and well-judged Manner, whose Conduct on this, as well as every other Occasion, I feel it my Duty to mention to your Lordship as that of a most zealous Officer, and I beg Leave to add, that Lieutenant Downie assures me he met with every possible Assistance from Mr. Thomas Napper, Midshipman, who accompanied him in a Four-oared Boat. The Seahorse during the Time kept up a quick and well directed Fire on the Fort, Gun Vessels, and Convoy; and having every Reason to believe I had sunk one of the Gun-Launches, and damaged and sunk several others of the Convoy, Night coming on, with light Winds, the Main-Topgallant-Mast, Sails, Braces, Bow-Lines shot away, I felt it imprudent any longer to attempt the Destruction of the Whole by exposing the Ship to the well-directed Fire of the Gun-Vessels, which latterly struck her every Shot. For the Exertions, on this Occasion, of Lieutenant Ogle Moore, Lieutenant Charles Brown Yonge, who had not received his confirmed Commission, Mr. Spratt, Master, Lieutenant Clarke, of the Royal Marines, Lieutenant Hagemeister, of the Russian Navy, I feel severally indebted; and indeed I should do Injustice to every other Officer and Man on board did I not mention them in the same Manner.

It would give me greater Satisfaction could I inform your Lordship we met with no Loss on this Service; however I feel that sustained in having only One Seaman killed, as trifling, considering the well-directed Fire in so many different Directions of the Enemy. Trusting that my Proceedings will meet your Lordship's Approbation,

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) C. BOYLE.

Right Hon. Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B.

SIR,

I HEREWITH transmit, for their Lordships' Information, the Copy of a Letter received from Captain Mudge, of the Blanche, acquainting me of his having captured a French Privateer.

I am, &c. J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Ship Blanche, off Cape Tiberon, April 5, 1805.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to acquaint you with having, this Day, captured the French Schooner Privateer La Hazard, mounting Three Guns and Fifty-eight Men, after a Chase of Twenty-six Hours.

I am, &c. (Signed) Z. MUDGE.
Rear-Admiral Dacres, Commander in Chief,

Copy of another Letter from Rear-Admiral Dacres to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Hercule, Port Royal Harbour, April 12, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for their Lordships' Information, the Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Le Geyte, of the Stork, acquainting me, that the Pinnace and Cutter had cut out a Dutch Privateer; also another Letter from Captain Ross, of the Pique, to Vice-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, stating that he had captured His Catholic Majesty's Corvette Orquijo.

I am, &c. J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Sloop Stork, off Mona, March 25, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that the Pinnace and Cutter of the Stork, with Eighteen Men, under the Command of Lieutenant Robertson, assisted by Lieutenant Murray, on the Night of the 23d Instant, cut out of the Harbour of Cape Roxo, in Porto Rico, the Dutch Schooner Privateer Antelope, of Five Guns and Fifty-four Men, Forty of which only were on board, and of that Number but Fifteen were made Prisoners, the Rest making their Escape by jumping into the Water.

As the Antelope was prepared to heave down on the following Day, her Guns, &c. were on board a Brig, alongside of which she was lashed, and from the Circumstance of her Crew being divided between the Two Vessels, and prepared to defend themselves, it became necessary to board them both at once, which was effected in a very gallant Manner, without any other Accident on our Part than that of Lieutenant Murray, and one Seaman being slightly wounded.

Lieutenant Robertson, whom I have always found an active and valuable Officer, appears to have conducted himself upon the present Occasion with great Steadiness, and I have much Pleasure in acknowledging the Sense I entertain of his Merit, as well as that of Lieutenant Murray, and the Seamen employed.

The Antelope is a fine Vessel and a remarkably fast Sailer. I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) G. LE GEYTE.

SIR,

I AVAIL myself of the Opportunity of a Packet sailing for England to enclose you a Copy of a Letter which I have this Day transmitted to Rear-Admiral Dacres, Commander in Chief at Jamaica, giving an Account of my having captured His Catholic Majesty's Schooner La Elizabeth, commanded by Don Josef Fer Fexegron, of Ten Guns and Forty-seven Men. Also of a most gallant Exploit performed by Lieutenant Oliver, in storming and taking a Fort, in order to effect the Capture of Three French Privateers, supposed to be laying in the Harbour of Mariel, on the Island of Cuba, and who, from their piratical Depredations, had much annoyed the Trade of His Majesty's Subjects, as well as the Commerce of Neutral Nations; and although the Object of the Expedition was not fully obtained, in consequence of their having sailed the Evening previous to the Attack, yet still, I trust, the bold and manly Conduct displayed by Lieutenant Oliver will be honored with the Approbation of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty; and although Lieutenant Campbell had not the good Fortune to share in the Glory of this well intended Enterprise, yet great Credit is due to his Intentions and Exertions. Lieutenant Oliver speaks in the highest Terms of Commendation of the Spirit and Alacrity of the Honorable Almeida De Courcy, as well as the Whole of his intrepid Crew.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

H. DASHWOOD.

Bacchante, New Providence, April 13, 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that, on the 3d Instant, His Majesty's Ship under my Direction captured, off the Havannah, His Catholic Majesty's Schooner La Elizabeth, of Ten Guns and Forty-seven Men, commanded by Don Josef Fer

Texeyron. She was charged with Dispatches from the Governor of Pensacola, which were thrown overboard previous to her surrendering.

Having received Information that there were Three French Privateers in the Harbour of Matiel, (a small convenient Port, a little to the Westward of the Havannah,) which had annoyed most considerably the Trade of His Majesty's Subjects, transiently passing through the Gulph, I determined, if possible, to rout this Band of Pirates; for, from their plundering and ill treating the Crew of every Vessel they met with, most particularly the Americans, they were nothing better; and Lieutenants Oliver and Campbell having, in the most handsome Manner, volunteered their Service on this hazardous Occasion, I dispatched these excellent Officers, accompanied by the Honorable Almericas De Courcy, Midshipman, on the Evening of the 5th Instant, in Two Boats; and as it was absolutely necessary to gain Possession of a Round Tower near Forty Feet high, on the Top of which were planted Three long Twenty-four-Pounders, with loop Holes round its Circumference for Musketry, and manned with a Captain and Thirty Soldiers, I gave Directions to attack and carry the Fort previous to their entering the Harbour, so as to enable them to secure a safe Retreat. Lieutenant Oliver, the senior Officer, being in the headmost Boat, finding himself discovered, and as not a Moment was to be lost at such a critical Period, most nobly advanced, without waiting for his Friend, landed in the Face, and in Opposition to a most tremendous Fire, without condescending to return the Salutation, mounted the Fort by a Ladder which he had previously provided, and fairly carried it by a Coup de Main with Thirteen Men, leaving Mr. De Courcy, with Three others, to guard the Boat, with an Accident to only One brave Man (George Allison) wounded, who was unfortunately shot through the Body before the Boat touched the Ground, but I am happy to say, from the Care and Attention of Mr. Williams, the Surgeon, he is already rapidly recovering; the Enemy had Two killed and Three wounded.

Lieutenant Oliver, leaving Serjeant Denflow, of the Marines, (who, from his Bravery and good Conduct, deserves great Praise,) with Six Men to guard the Fort, and having been rejoined by Lieutenant Campbell, dashed on to attack the Privateers, but to their great Mortification found they had failed the Day previous on a Cruise; he was therefore obliged to be contented with taking Possession of Two Schooners, laden with Sugar, which he most gallantly brought away from alongside a Wharf, in spite of repeated Discharges of Musketry from the Troops and Militia which poured down in Numbers, from the surrounding Country.

I should not have been thus particular in recounting a Circumstance which was not attended with ultimate Success, were it not to mark my Admiration of the noble Conduct of Lieutenant Oliver in so gallantly attacking and carrying a Fort which, with the Men it contained, ought to have maintained its Position against Fifty Times the Number that were opposed; but nothing could withstand the prompt and manly Steps taken by that Officer and his gallant Crew on this Occasion; and as, in my humble Judgment, the Attempt was most daring and hazardous, and had the Privateers been there, I doubt not but Success would have attended them, so I humbly solicit the Honor of Notice to this most gallant Officer.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

C. DASHWOOD.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Drury to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Trent, in Cork Harbour, the 10th Instant.

SIR,
ENCLOSED I transmit you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from Captain Losack, of His Majesty's Sloop Helena, giving an Account of the Capture of the Santa Leocadia, a Spanish Privateer, of Fourteen Guns, and One Hundred and Fourteen Men.

I am, &c.

W. O'B. DRURY.

His Majesty's Ship Helena, at Sea, 9th June 1805.

SIR,
I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that on the Station prescribed by your Order of the 21st of March, His Majesty's Sloop under my Command captured on the 5th Instant, after a Chase of Ten Hours, and a smart Exchange of Shot for Fifteen Minutes, the Santa Leocadia Spanish Ship Privateer, pierced for Twenty Guns, Fourteen Nine-Pounders mounted, and a Complement of One Hundred and Fourteen Men. I am happy, Sir, to add, that no Person was hurt on board the Helena, although the Enemy's Guns were well supplied with Grape and Langrage; she was Fifty-four Days from St. Sebastian, not having made any Capture, perfectly new, coppered, sails well, and in my Opinion calculated for the King's Service. Could I venture, Sir, on this short Trial of the Officers and Crew I have the Pleasure to command, to mention their Conduct, I should certainly recommend them to Notice; among whom Lieutenant Hugh Wylie, First of the Helena, and Messrs. Warson and Willitts, who have both passed for Lieutenants, and anxiously waiting their Lordships' Patronage.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

WOODLEY LOSACK.

Whitehall, June 18, 1805.

THE following Intelligence has been received at the East India-House, from Bengal:

To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley, Governor-General, &c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

MY Dispatches of the 24th and 25th Instant*, will have informed your Lordship of the complete Success of our Operations against the Town and Fort of Deig.

I attribute our early Possession of this strong Fortress, entirely to the Panic which the Garrison experienced, on witnessing the irresistible Valour and Intrepidity of our Troops in carrying by Assault the Outwork, and storming their numerous Batteries, under the Walls of the Town, which were supported by extensive Entrenchments, occupied by a large Force, consisting of several of the Rajah of Bhurtpore's Battalions, and the remaining Infantry of Jeshunt Rao Holkar. The Number of the Enemy killed on the Night of the 23d Instant was immense.

The ardent Zeal, Energy, and irresistible Valour, which has marked the Conduct of our Officers and Troops employed on this Occasion, under Circumstances of peculiar Difficulty and Danger, must ever reflect on them the highest Credit; and the Benefit the Nation has received from their exemplary and heroic Behaviour, must be Matter of proud Exultation to every Well-wisher of the British Empire.

Too much Praise cannot be bestowed on every Corps engaged, for the perfect Regularity with which this Service was performed.

I found it necessary to divide the Force destined for this Service into Three Columns, the Whole moving off so as to reach the different Points of Attack a little before Twelve at Night.

The Right Column, under Captain Kelly, consisting of Four Battalion Companies of the Honorable Company's European Regiments, and Five Companies of the 1st Battalion 12th Regiment Native Infantry, was ordered to carry the Enemy's Batteries and Trenches on the high Ground to the Left of the Town. The Success of this Party was complete, and entitles Captain Kelly to every Praise for the Manner in which it was conducted, and for the Coolness and Gallantry he displayed under every trying Circumstance, exposed to a heavy Fire from Artillery, which was defended with desperate Resolution. Captain Raban, of the Artillery, who accompanied this Party for the Purpose of spiking or bringing off the captured Ordnance, particularly signalized himself on this dangerous Service.

The Left Column, under Major Radcliffe, consisting of the remaining Four Battalion Companies of the Honorable Company's European Regiment, and Five Companies of the 1st Battalion 12th Regiment Native Infantry, was destined to carry the Trenches and Batteries on the Enemy's Right. This Column was equally successful with that opposed to their Left; and the Service was performed with equal Gallantry and Spirit, and reflects infinite Credit on Major Radcliffe.

The Centre Column, led by Lieutenant Colonel Macrae, (who had the general Command of the Whole,) consisting of the Flank Companies of His Majesty's 22d, 76th, and of the Honorable Company's European Regiment, and of the 1st Battalion 8th Regiment Native Infantry, composed the storming Party.

I have hardly Words to express my Sense of the Conduct of this Party, who, under a galling Fire, on their Flanks, of Cannon and Musketry from the Enemy's Batteries and Trenches, and over broken and extremely unfavourable Ground, rushed on to the Breach, and gained Possession of the Work, with a Spirit and Ardour which must have ensured Success whatever might have been the Opposition.

I feel myself under the greatest Obligations to Lieutenant-Colonel Macrae, to whose Conduct on this Occasion I attribute the ultimate Success of the Attack.

Lieutenant-Colonel Ball, who commanded the 1st Battalion 8th Regiment Native Infantry, is entitled to the greatest Praise for the Activity and Spirit he displayed in leading on his Men; and for the able Assistance he rendered Colonel Macrae, in the Adoption of such Measures as became afterwards necessary to secure us in Possession of the Place. It is with sincere Grief I add, that this valuable Officer received a severe, though, I trust, not dangerous Wound, but which will, I fear, deprive me of his Services for some Time.

* These Letters have not been received.

The Conduct of Captain Lindlay, of His Majesty's 22d Regiment, has been represented to me as highly meritorious; I lament to add that this gallant Officer is likewise wounded.

It is unnecessary for me to detail more fully the Conduct of Individuals on a Service where Merit has been, throughout all Ranks, so eminently conspicuous; but I feel it my Duty to draw your Lordship's Attention to the Services rendered by Lieutenant Colonel Horsford, commanding the Artillery, to whose professional Knowledge and Activity throughout this Siege, and on every other Occasion, I feel infinitely indebted, as well as to the whole of that Corps, for their spirited and unremitting Exertions.

The Officers of the Engineer Department, Captain Robertson and Lieutenant Smith, have peculiar Merit, and are entitled to my best Thanks and Approbation.

The Corps of Pioneers, under the Orders of Captain Swinton, command my warmest Praise, for the Chearfulness with which they performed their laborious Duties, and particularly for the Alacrity they displayed on the Night of the 23d Instant. Too much Credit cannot be bestowed on Captain Swinton, who on this and every former Occasion has been most zealous and active. I am sorry to add that this excellent Officer is severely wounded, as is Lieutenant Forrest, of the same Corps, whose Conduct was equally meritorious.

Your Lordship will, I am confident, receive much Pleasure in learning the highly exemplary Conduct of the Three Corps of British Cavalry in Camp, the whole of whom volunteered their Services as working Parties for the Trenches and Batteries, and assisted very materially in accelerating our Operations against this Place; they have received my sincere Thanks for their Exertions, and for a Zeal so honorable to the British Character.

I have the Honor to enclose Returns of the Killed and Wounded during the Siege, and on the Night of the Assault, with a Return of the captured Ordnance, &c.

The Fugitives, composed of the Rajah of Burt-pore's Battalions, and his Garrison, with the Remainder of Jeswant Rao Holkar's Infantry, appeared generally to have taken the Direction of Burt-pore. By every Information, great Numbers have deserted, and I do not imagine they will again attempt to oppose us. I shall move towards Burt-pore as soon as possible.

Before I conclude this Dispatch, I beg Leave to mention to your Lordship the very spirited Conduct of Mr. Metcalf, of the Civil Service. He volunteered to accompany the Storming Party, and was, I am informed, among the foremost who ascended the Breach.

I have the Honor to be, &c

To His Excellency the Most Noble Marquis Wellesley, Governor General, &c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that, in consequence of the Breach in the Wall of the Town being reported practicable, I determined on storming the Place Yesterday Evening. I chose this Time, in order to prevent the Enemy from stockading the Breach during the Night, which had hitherto been the Case.

I am sorry to add, that Obstacles of an insurmountable Nature were opposed to the Storming Party on their Arrival at the Breach, the Water in the Ditch was exceedingly deep; this Difficulty however was speedily surmounted, and the Party gained the Foot of the Breach; but though every Exertion was made by both Officers and Men, the Breach was so imperfect, that every Effort to gain the Top proved fruitless, and the Column, after making several Attempts with heavy Loss, was obliged to retire, which they did in excellent Order, to our Battery.

Among the many brave Men who have fallen on this Occasion, it is with sincere Grief I report the Death of Lieutenant-Colonel Maitland, of the 75th Regiment, who commanded the Storming Party; his Exertions are deserved by all, to have been of a Nature the most heroic, and his Example animated the Men to persevere in their Attempts, which nothing but Difficulties, of a Nature the most unexpected, could have rendered unsuccessful. This gallant Officer, though he had received several Severe Wounds, continued to exert himself until he received a Shot in the Head, which proved instantaneously mortal.

Although we unfortunately failed in gaining Possession of the Place, we were not wholly unsuccessful; a Flanking Column on the Right, under the Orders of Major Hawkes, gained Possession of the Enemy's Battery, and succeeded in spiking and disabling their Guns, and in destroying the greatest Part of the Enemy who were opposed to them.

I beg to assure your Lordship, that the Conduct of our Officers and Men employed last Night, has been as exemplary as on every former Occasion; but Circumstances of an unexpected and unfortunate Nature occurred, which their utmost Efforts could not surmount, but I hope in a very few Days their excellent Conduct will be rewarded by the Possession of the Place.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Drury to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Trent, in Cork Harbour, the 13th Instant.

SIR,

YOU will please to acquaint the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty of the Arrival, this Day, of His Majesty's Ship Loire, and Three Privateers, Two Spanish and One French.

I herewith transmit Captain Maitland's Letter, enclosing one from Lieutenant Yeo, First Lieutenant of the Loire, giving an Account of the Capture of the above Vessels, as well as of his most judicious and prompt Decision in entering the Bay of Muros; and by the most active and daring Gallantry on the Part of Captain Maitland and Lieutenant Yeo, and the Officers and Ship's Company of the Loire, taking the Forts which defended the Bay; the Particulars of which are therein detailed: also another Letter from Captain Maitland, describing the very gallant Attack made by Lieutenant Yeo, in the Boats of the Loire, on a Spanish Felucca and small Privateer, under the Enemy's Batteries, accompanied with Lists of the Killed and Wounded, and a List of Vessels captured and destroyed.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. B. DRURY.

His Majesty's Ship Loire, off Cape Finistère, June 2, 1805.

SIR,

HAVE to inform you, that, after delivering the Dispatches Lord Gardner charged me with to Sir Robert Calder, in stretching to the Westward to regain my Station, a small Vessel was discovered standing into the Bay of Camarinas, to the Eastward of Cape Finistère. Being quite calm after Dark, I sent the Launch and Two Cutters, under Mr. Yeo, First Lieutenant, assisted by Lieutenant Malleck of the Marines, and Messrs. Clinch, Herbert, and Mildridge, Midshipmen, to endeavour to bring her out. From the Intricacy of the Passage, the Boats did not get up till Break of Day, when they found Two small Privateers moored under a Battery of Ten Guns; undaunted, however, by a Circumstance so little expected, Mr. Yeo ordered the Launch, commanded by Mr. Clinch, to board the smallest, while he, with the Two Cutters, most gallantly attacked and carried the largest, a Felucca armed with Three Eighteen-Pounders, Four Four-Pounder Brass Swivels and Fifty Men.

The Launch had the same Success in her Attack, the Fort immediately opened a Fire, so ill directed, however, as to do little Damage. Being still perfectly calm close under the Guns of the Battery, and no Possibility of receiving Assistance from the Ship, Mr. Yeo was under the painful Necessity of abandoning the smallest Vessel, a Lugger of Two Six-Pounders and Thirty-two Men, to secure the Felucca, which, I am happy to add, was effected with only Three Men, William Turner, James Gardner, Quarter-Master, and John Maynes, Marine, slightly wounded.

The Loss on board the Lugger cannot be ascertained. When the Crew of the Felucca was mustered, Nineteen out of Fifty were missing, some of whom had jumped overboard, but the greatest Part were killed by the Pike, there being no Weapons used but the Pike and Sabre.

When we call to mind the Inequality of Force, Officers included, there being not more than Thirty-five of the Loire's opposed to Eighty Spaniards, with their Vessels moored to the Walls of a heavy Battery, it must be allowed to confer the greatest Credit on the Officers and Men employed on the Service.

Mr. Yeo, in coming out, took Possession of Three small Merchant Vessels, but finding their Cargoes consisted only of small Wine for the Enemy's Squadron at Ferrol, I have destroyed them. The Name of the Privateer captured is the Esperanza alias San Pedro of Corunna. She is quite new, only out Four Days, and was victualled and stored for a Cruise of one Month.

Mr. Yeo assures me that he was assisted by Mr. Mallock, with the greatest Bravery, and gives the highest Praise to Mr. Clinch for the Gallantry and Promptness with which he carried his Orders into Execution in the Launch. He also speaks in the warmest Terms of the Officers and other Men under his Command.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) FRED. MAITLAND.

Rear-Admiral Drury, &c. &c. &c. Cork.

His Majesty's Ship Loire, at Anchor, Muros Road, Spain, June 4, 1805.

BEING informed that there was a French Privateer, of Twenty-six Guns, sitting out at Muros, and nearly ready for Sea, it struck me, from my Recollection of the Bay (having been in it formerly, when Lieutenant of the Kingsfisher), as being practicable either to bring her out or destroy her, with the Ship I have the Honor to command. I accordingly prepared Yesterday Evening for engaging at Anchor, and appointed Mr. Yeo, First Lieutenant, with Lieutenants Mallocks and Douglass, of the Marines, and Mr. Clinch, Master's Mate, to head the Boarders and Marines, amounting, Officers included, to Fifty Men (being all that could be spared from anchoring the Ship and working the Guns), in landing and storming the Fort, though I then had no Idea its Strength was so great as it has proved. At Nine this Morning, on the Sea-Breeze setting in, I stood for the Bay in the Ship, the Men previously prepared being in the Boats ready to shove off. On hauling close round the Point of the Road, a small Battery of Two Guns opened a Fire on the Ship; a few Shot were returned, but perceiving it would annoy us considerably, from its Situation, I desired Mr. Yeo to push on Shore and spike the Guns, reminding the Men of its being the Anniversary of their Sovereign's Birth, and that, for his sake, as well as their own Credit, their utmost Exertions must be used. Though such an Injunction was unnecessary, it had a great Effect in animating and raising the Spirits of the People. As the Ship drew in, and more fully opened the Bay, I perceived a very long Corvette, of Twenty-six Ports, apparently nearly ready for Sea, and a large Brig, of Twenty Ports, in a State of sitting, but neither of them firing, led me to conclude they had not their Guns on board, and left no other Object to occupy my Attention but a heavy Fort, which, at this Moment, opened to our View, within less than a Quarter of a Mile, and began a wonderfully well directed Fire, almost every Shot taking place in the Hull. Perceiving that, by standing further on, more Guns would be brought to bear upon us, without our being enabled to near the Fort so much as I wished, I ordered the Helm to be put down, and when, from the Way she had, we had gained an advantageous Position, anchored with a Spring, and commenced firing. Although we have but little Doubt that, before long, we should have silenced the Fort, yet from the Specimen they gave us, and being completely embrazured, it must have cost us many lives, and great Injury to the Ship, had not Mr. Yeo's Gallantry and great Conduct soon put an End to their Fire.

I must now revert to him and the Party under his Command; having landed under the small Battery on the Point, it was instantly abandoned, but hardly had he Time to spike the Guns, when, at the Distance of a Quarter of a Mile, he perceived a regular Fort, ditched, and with a Gate, which the Enemy (fortunately never suspecting our Landing) had neglected to secure, open a Fire upon the Ship; without waiting for Orders he pushed forward, and was opposed at the Inner Gate by the Governor, with such Troops as were in the Town, and the Crews of the French Privateers. From the Testimony of the Prisoners as well as our own Men, it appears that Mr. Yeo was the first that entered the Fort, with One Blow laid the Governor dead at his Feet, and broke his own Sabre in two; the other Officers were dispatched by such Officers and Men of ours as were most advanced, and the Narrowness of the Gate would permit, to push forward; the Remainder instantly fled to the further End of the Fort, where, from the Ship, we could perceive many of them leap from the Embrazures upon the Rocks, (a Height of above Twenty-five Feet) such as laid down their Arms received Quarter. For a more particular Account of the Proceedings of Mr. Yeo and his Party, I beg leave to refer you to his Letter enclosed herewith, and have to request you will be pleased to recommend him to the Notice of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty; being a very old Officer, and in the Two late Instances has displayed as much Gallantry as ever fell to the Lot of any Man; he speaks in the strongest Language of the Officers and Men under his Command on Shore, and I feel it but justice to attribute our Success wholly to their Exertions; for although the Fire from the Ship was admirably directed, the Enemy were so completely covered by their Embrazures, as to render the Grape almost ineffectual.

The Instant the Union was displayed at the Fort I sent and took Possession of the Enemy's Vessels in the Road, consisting of the Constance French Ship Privateer, pierced for Twenty-six Twelves and Nines, none of which however were on board; the Beliér, a French Privateer Brig, pierced for Twenty Eighteen Pound Carronades; and a Spanish Merchant Brig in Ballast. I then hoisted a Flag of Truce, and sent to inform the Inhabitants of the Town, that, if they would deliver up such Stores of the Ship as were on Shore there would be no further Molestation; the Proposal was thankfully agreed to. I did not, however, think it advisable to allow the People to remain long enough to embark the Guns, there being a large Body of Troops in the Vicinity. A great many small Vessels are in the Bay and hauled up on the Beach, none of them having Cargoes of any Value, I conceive it an Act of Inhumanity to deprive the poorer Inhabitants of the Means of gaining their Livelihood, and shall not molest them. On inspecting the Brig, as she had only the lower Rigging over Head, and was not in a State of Forwardness, I found it impracticable to bring her away, and therefore set Fire to her; She is now burnt to the Water's Edge. I cannot conclude my Letter without giving the Portion of Credit that is their due to the Officers and Men on board the Ship. They conducted themselves with the greatest Steadiness and Coolness; and, although under a heavy Fire, pointed their Guns with the utmost Precision: there being hardly a Shot that did not take Effect. To Lieutenants Lawe and Bertram I feel much indebted, as well as to Mr. Shea the Purser, (who volunteered his Services, and to whom I gave the Charge of the Quarter Deck Carronades in Mr. Yeo's Absence,) for the Precision and Coolness displayed by the Men under their Command in pointing the Guns, as well as the exact Attention paid to my Orders, and ceasing Fire the Instant the Union Jack made its Appearance on the Walls, by which, in all Probability, the Lives of several of our Men were saved. Mr. Cleverly, the Master, brought the Broadside to bear with much Quickness and Nicety, by Means of the Spring. I send you herewith a List of our Wounded on board, and on Shore, with One of the Enemy's Killed and Wounded; and an Account of their Force at the Commencement of the Action.

I have been under the Necessity of being more detailed than I could wish, but it is out of my Power, in a smaller Compass, to do Justice to the Exertions and Conduct of the Officers and Men employed on the different Services. It is but fair at the same Time to state that, much to the Credit of the Ship's Company, the Bishop and One of the principal Inhabitants of the Town came off to express their Gratitude for the orderly Behaviour of the People (there not being One Instance of Pillage,) and to make Offer of every Refreshment the Place affords.

I am now waiting for the Land Breeze to carry us out, having already recalled the Officers and Men from the Fort, the Guns being spiked and thrown over the Parapet, the Carriages rendered unserviceable, and the Embrazures, with Part of the Fort, blown up.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

*His Majesty's Ship Loire, Muros,

SIR,
I HAVE the Pleasure to acquaint you, that I proceeded on Shore with the Party you did me the Honor to place under my Command, for the Purpose of forming the Fort on the Point agreeable to your Orders, which, on our Approach, the Soldiers quitted. On my Arrival, I observed a strong Fort at the Entrance of the Town, opening a heavy Fire on the Ship; and, judging it practicable to carry it by Storm, from a thorough Knowledge I had of the determined Bravery of all the Officers and Men, I ordered them to follow me for that Purpose, which was obeyed with all that Energy and Gallantry which British Seamen and Marines are so well known to possess on such an Occasion, and, in a very short Time, reached the Outer Gate, when the French Centinel fired, and retreated into the Fort, which we instantly entered, and was met by the Governor and all the Garrison, &c., when, after a dreadful Slaughter on the Part of the Enemy, the Remainder surrendered, and I instantly ordered the British Colours to be hoisted.

I feel it my Duty, as well as the greatest Pleasure, to mention the great Support I received from Lieutenant Mallock, of the Royal Marines, and Mr. Charles Clinch, Master's-Mate, as, from their being near me all the Time of the Action, I was enabled to observe their very cool and gallant Behaviour, as also of Lieutenant Douglas, of the Royal Marines, who, though engaged at different Parts of the Fort, I have no less Reason to be highly pleased with.

I must now beg Leave to say how much I am indebted to every Seaman and Marine of the Party, who behaved so unaniously brave nothing could withstand them, and to their Credit as Englishmen as well as their Profession; the Instant the Fort was in our Possession, they seemed to try who could be the first to relieve and assist the poor wounded Prisoners, who were lying in Numbers in different Parts of the Fort; and I had the Pleasure to see their Humanity amply repaid by the Gratitude the unfortunate Men's Friends expressed when they came to take them away.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JAMES LUCAS YEO.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Dacres, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Hercules, at Sea, the 2d May 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for their Lordships' Information, the Copy of a Letter from Captain Coghlan, of His Majesty's Sloop Renard, acquainting me of his having brought to Action the General Erneuf Privateer, late His Majesty's Sloop Lilly, which, after a close Action of Thirty-five Minutes, took Fire and exploded. It is an additional Proof of the steady and decisive Conduct of Captain Coghlan, who speaks in high Terms of his Officers and Ship's Company, all of whom will, I am sure, meet the Approbation of their Lordships.

I am, &c. J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Sloop Renard, Port Royal, Jamaica, April 27, 1805.

SIR,

HAVING escorted the Chelsterfield Packet to the Latitude directed in your Order of the Sixteenth of March, last, and being on my Way to carry into Effect the latter Part of it, I have the Honor to acquaint you, that at Eleven A. M. on Friday the Twentieth Ult. being in Latitude Twenty-one Deg. Fourteen Min. N., and Longitude Seventy-one Deg. Thirty Min. West, a Ship was seen to Leeward standing (under easy Sail) to the North West; all Sail was instantly made in Chace, and the Stranger soon discovered to be an Enemy, who, upon our Approach, shortened Sail, evidently with an Intention to engage us; at Twenty Minutes past Two P. M. having reduced our Sail, I closed with the Enemy, who opened his Fire upon us, but not a Gun was fired from this Ship until within Pistol Shot, at which Distance she was placed on the Enemy's Weather-Bow, when, a Fire commenced that reflects infinite Praise on the Officers who directed it, for at the short Period of Thirty-five Minutes, the Enemy was discovered to be on Fire, and in Ten Minutes after blew up with a dreadful Explosion; every possible Exertion was now made to get the only Boat that could swim to the Relief of the few Brave, but unfortunate Survivors, who had just before so gallantly defended themselves, and who were now seen all around us, on the scattered Remnants of the Wreck, in a mangled and truly distressing State; but it is with Pleasure I add, that of the few who escaped the Flames, not a Man was drowned, amounting to Fifty-five.

The Ship proved to be the General Erneuf, a Privateer, late His Majesty's Sloop Lilly, commanded by Monsieur Paul Gerard Pointe, Seven Days from Basterre, Guadaloupe, carrying Eighteen Twelve Pounder Carronades, and Two long Guns (Four more than when in His Majesty's Service), with a Complement of One Hundred and Sixty Men, (Thirty-one of whom were Soldiers,) going to Cruise for the Homeward bound Jamaica Fleet.

The Enemy's Loss was great before the melancholy Scene that put an End to the Action, having between Twenty and Thirty Men killed and wounded; and I am singularly happy to acquaint you that mine is inconsiderable. Nine Men only being wounded, some slightly, I hope none dangerously. The steady, cool, and determined Conduct of the Officers and Men serving under my Orders, was truly meritorious, and gives them just Claims on every Commendation that is in the Power of their Commander to bestow. Our Sails, Running, and Standing Rigging have suffered much, the Enemy's Fire being principally directed against them. The Second Captain and One Lieutenant are the only surviving Officers. This Ship cruized with great Success against the Trade of His Majesty's Subjects, having made Six valuable Captures, on her former Cruise.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JEREMIAH COGHLAN.

Copy of another Letter from Rear Admiral Dacres to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board L'Hercule, at Sea, the 9th May 1805.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose you the Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Hardyman, of the Unicorn, acquainting me of the Boats of that Ship having captured the Tape-a-bord, Cutter Privateer.

I am, &c.

J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's Ship Unicorn, at Sea, May 6, 1805.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to inform you of the Capture of the French National Privateer Le Tape-a-bord, mounting Four Six-Pounders, well armed, and carrying Forty-six Men, commanded by Citizen Hemiguelth, by the Boats of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, on the North Side of St. Domingo, Cape François, bearing S. W. by S. Distance Eight or Nine Leagues, on the Morning of the 6th Instant, a strange Sail was seen on the Larboard Bow, Distance Seven or Eight Miles, having then light Airs, and inclinable to calm, and perceiving the Stranger was using every Effort with his Sweeps to escape, and apparently full of Men, and no Hopes of my closing with His Majesty's Ship, I directed Henry Smith Wilfon, First Lieutenant, with Four Boats, assisted by James Tait and Henry Bouchier, Second and Third Lieutenants, backed by the Volunteer Services of Thomas Tud, or Tucker, a Passenger belonging to His Majesty's Ship Northumberland, Walter Powell, Lieutenant of Marines, and Charles Rundle, Purser of His Majesty's Ship under my Command, to proceed with the Boats, and endeavour to come up with the Chace. The cool and determined Manner in which this Service was performed, after a Pull of many Hours, and the strong Opposition they met with, from the well-directed Fire of the Guns and Musketry, kept up by the Privateer, induces me thus publicly to express my Approbation of every Officer, Seaman, and Marine engaged on this Service; and I am happy to add, that no Lives were lost upon the Occasion.

This Privateer was from Samana, on a Cruise, out Ten Days, without taking any Thing.

I am, &c. L. T. HARDYMAN.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the Kings Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any Ship or Boat, not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up, or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall, for every Offence, forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Effoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Suffrance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.
